S Y N O

THIS book is based on Shakespeare's principle that "all the world's a stage and all its men and women merely players." Appropriately, the book is divided into three divisions — The STAGE, the CAST, and the PLAY.

Under STAGE you will find the school, the principal, and the faculty, comparable to the theater, the producer, and his assistants.

The CAST, which includes the classes, resembles a troupe of actors which changes with the years: the freshmen, as frightened new-comers placing timorous feet on the first rungs of the ladder of success, and the seniors as hardened troupers who have weathered the storms and have ultimately reached their goal—graduation.

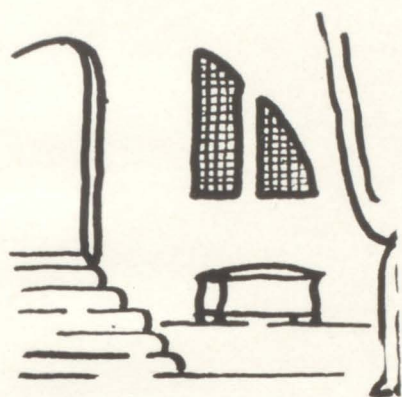

The PLAY consists of the school activities and is divided into three acts—Fall, Winter, and Spring. The first act, Fall, is divided into four scenes: Football, Girl Reserves, Hi-Y, and the Mirror. The four scenes coming in the Winter are Basketball, Student Council, Scholarship Club and the Senior Play. Act three, Spring, includes the Caldron, Band, Chorus, F. F. A. and ends with the Prom. The Conclusion consists of an autograph page and the ads.

In the following pages the Senior Class of 1941 presents

HIGH SCHOOL

THE STAGE

"all the world's a stage"

OUR SCHOOL

MADISON Memorial High School was built in 1921 as a Memorial to the Madison High School Graduates, who gave their services in the First World War. A metal tablet has been erected just to the right of the front entrance with the names of these unsung heroes. It also contains the names of Madison graduates who served in the Spanish-American and Civil Wars.

Previous to the time it was built the grade school and high school were combined at the old Main Street School. North Madison High School classes were held in the North Madison Grade School. The new building made it possible for a consolidated high school.

The bell in the stone arch on the high school lawn is the old bell from the Main Street School.

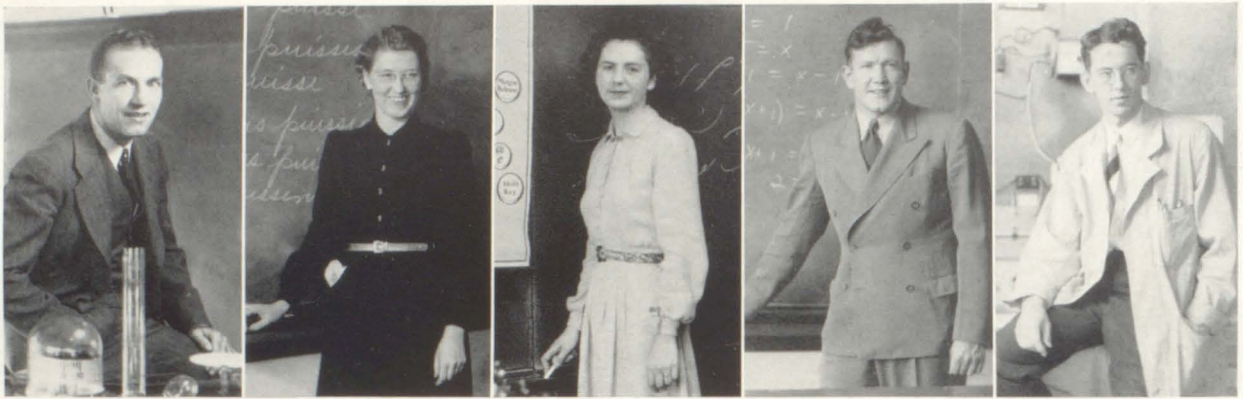

The new Industrial Arts Building was built in 1939.

PRODUCER

MR. S. B. TRESCOTT, A. B. Hiram College, has been Superintendent of Madison Schools for twelve years. Before becoming Superintendent he taught in the high school for eight years. He was coach and also taught mathematics, physics and biology.

He is then, the producer of the play which you are to witness as you turn these pages.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

DID you ever see a Television set? Well, we built one in Physics the other day and it worked; kind of funny — but it worked. Turn one dial and you get a town; turn another and you get a year; another gives the date.

Well, we turned it on the year 1951 in August, and started dialing. Suddenly we saw on the screen a Dupont Laboratory, and there, preparing to leave on their vacation, were Bob Griggs and Bob Prouty, who are in charge of the Research Department.

They first drove to Washington to see Sam Hathaway who was rapidly advancing toward Admiral of the Navy. He took them to the Naval air base where Bill Lehman and Bill Brown were engineers. Upon entering the inner offices, they found Hobart Cowles designing a new long-distance bomber. They then started toward the treasury department to see Perry Quayle, under-Secretary of the Treasury, and Jack Jones, assistant to the Treasurer of the United States. But on the way there, they stopped to admire the grounds of a new university in beautiful Washington. They were then informed that the grounds were plotted and cared for by Rooks and Hejduk, Landscape Gardeners, a company headed by Doris Rooks and Hobart Hejduk.

Having left Washington for Cleveland, they stopped at a chapel in the valley, one Sunday and listened to a beautiful sermon delivered by John Petrova.

Arriving in Cleveland that evening, they checked in at the Hotel Statler, and went up to the Sky Terrace, where "Nick" Demos, his trumpet and his orchestra, were playing a limited engagement. While there they met Fay Green, leading social worker, and Betty Ernst, a writer for the "P. D.", who told them that Anna Sesu and Elinor Hummel were clerking in the May Company and that Jean Balch was teaching school in Madison.

The next day they visited the Cleveland Municipal Airport and met June Miller, who is a hostess on one of American Airlines' planes. She was going to see her boss who had his offices at the airport, and invited the two Bobs to accompany her. Imagine their surprise when they saw Paul Snyder, Chief Pilot for American Airlines, and his secretary, Evelyn Kulow. They had quite a long talk with Paul who told them that Bill Sager had the largest farm in Lake County and was the most successful farmer in Ohio; and that Henry Berwaldt was the preacher in the largest church in Cleveland.

As they returned to the hotel to check-out, they met Fran Trescott, who is librarian at the Cleveland Public Library. Fran told them that Marie Zeman was chief accountant at Blepp-Coombs Sporting Goods Company.

The next morning the boys left for the west coast, and two days later stopped at Yellowstone National Park to see Old Faithful. That evening they met John Dodge who is the chief forester at Yellowstone and the three spent the next day telling each other of their experiences of the past ten years.

Another drive of a day and a half brought them to Hollywood where they were just in time to join Gladys Diedrich and E. J. Rhoads who were on their way to the premier of their new picture. At the premier they met Marion Brainard, who is staff photographer for "Life" magazine; Genevieve Hagerdon, who just put a new line of cosmetics on the market; Ruth Somnitz, who designed the costumes; and Genevieve Crofoot, who designed the settings for the picture. They also saw Karl Moeckel, who was the studio technician, and Mary Davis, who was script girl. After the show the whole group went over to Locust Grove where Corell Nash and his Orchestra were just finishing a five weeks engagement. Norma Ross, who is his vocalist, told them that Marion Brotzman was head nurse at the Mayo Clinic.

The next day, Bob and Bob left for home and arrived a day before their vacation was over, so they spent that day catching up on some lost sleep.

Just then the bell rang and we turned the set off, and when we went to use it again it wouldn't work!

THE JUNIOR PLAYERS

The Junior Class of '40 and '41 opened session with the following officers being elected: Louis Mavko, President; Stanley Babic, Vice President; Robert Henninge, Secretary; and David Demos, Treasurer. At the same time representatives to the Student council were chosen; namely Janice Lange, Jean Stimpert, Phil Anderson, and William Pethtel.

Plans were started for ways to earn money for the Prom. The selling of candy at noons was conducted as usual by the Juniors. Also as the annual custom the class had the privilege of selling magazine subscriptions. Much cooperation was shown and over $100 worth of subscriptions were sold, about $45 of which was received by the class for their efforts.

Their first social affair was a class theatre party held in the fall.

As their contribution to the Stunt Night Program, the Juniors gave their version of a kindergarten class.

On January 25th the Junior Class sponsored a Snow Ball Dance which was held in the gym. Decorations were very appropriate and effective. Music was furnished by Hurley-Warren.

Several of the football lettermen were Juniors. They were also very active on the basketball team; Donald Wickert being Captain.

The Scholarship Club boasted eight Junior members.

And then the Prom, for which all had been looking forward, was held April 25th at the Mentor Harbor Yacht Club in the form of a dinner dance. Janice Lange was Prom Chairman.

We elected Shirley Emmett and Robert Roberts to represent us on the Student Council. Later in the term Jacob Mavko took up the duties left vacant by Robert Roberts.

Our first social activity, a theatre party in Painesville on October 8th, was well attended. Mr. Smith and Miss Shimmon were our chaperons.

As their part of the program for Stunt Night the Sophomores presented the play entitled "St. George and the Dragon."

Our Valentine's Dance on February 14th was the most successful dance of the year, financially and in the spirit of good times. There were games provided for those who did not care to dance while Gladys Nash provided music for the dancers. The main feature of the evening was the presentation of Janice Lange as the Queen of Hearts.

On February 20th three Sophomores represented our class at the annual Scholarship Banquet held at Kirtland. They were: Shirley Ostrander, Herbert Kubach and Janice Lee Jayred.

Many of our Sophomores were cheered on the gridiron and the basketball floor. In fact we can boast of no less than ten Sophs going out for basketball.

The year started off well with the election of the following officers: President, Donald Stamm; Vice-President, Ray Hoffacker; Secretary, Elsie Mavko; Treasurer, Sheldon Lesh. Class advisers were Miss Matlack and Mr. Tidd. The program committee, consisting of Lawrence Wirtzberger, chairman, with Betty Clemens, Winifred Trisket, and Clifton Rea assisting him, served its purpose well in providing various means of entertainment during the meetings.

The class boasted six members on the Scholarship Club, namely Marjorie Barry, Betty Dodge, Joan Nash, Laura Grace Peckham, Charlotte Ellis, and Clifton Rea.

The first class theatre party, held at the Lake Theater on February 8th, was a great success, as were our other numerous activities, among them, the Freshman Dance held on April 4th.

The first Wednesday of every month the members enjoyed a refreshing swim at the Y. M. C. A. pool in Painesville.

The Hi-Y put on a short, humorous skit entitled "You Can't Try An Insane Man," for Stunt Night last fall. Dudley Rose, Robert Griggs, John Jones, and Thomas Woods were included in the cast.

GIRL RESERVES

This year, 1940-41, was the first to have mothers of the G. R. members as our sponsors. Previous to this time sponsors had been members of the Fortnightly Club. The mothers attended the formal initiation of our new members and have done a marvelous job.

At the beginning of the year the Installation Service for the new officers was held and later the informal initiation of the new members.

The first great event of the school year was the hayride party which we sponsored in October. Everybody was invited, and practically everybody came, and had an evening of fun. That same October the girls got ambitious and hiked over to Buttermilk Falls.

Then came that great event—STUNT NIGHT—November 29, when every school organization contributed a stunt for an evening of full enjoyment. How proud we were when Gladys Diedrich, our president, went up to receive the cup for the G. R.'s prize-winning stunt, which was "The Life of a Madison-ite, From 7 A. M. to 2 A. M. Bright."

Filled with Christmas spirit we gave a children's party in December. The children gathered around the bright tree while Santa Claus distributed the gifts which they enjoyed amidst ice cream and cake.

Throughout the school year we had many interesting speakers on various subjects. Also the girls went swimming several times at Lake Erie College.

Our main activities throughout the remainder of the school year are the Mother-Daughter Banquet and Senior Farewell.

Miss Shimmon, adviser, guided us through the school year with the following officers: Gladys Diedrich, President; Fay Green, Vice-President; Betty Ernst, Secretary; and Janice Lange, Treasurer.

MIRROR STAFF

Well, assignments have to go out again. Editorials—sports—news—gossip—who'll write 'em up this time? Eva and Liz will take care of the editorials — Jean and Shirley and Plum will dig up some NEW gossip, I hope. Ray Miracle is a PEACH about practically writing the whole sport page—Gosh, hope he doesn't refuse this time. But who will dig up some news—and more important WRITE IT? Betty? Frances? Pat? Nope, they did it last time. Bet they wouldn't do it again—well maybe they would—I'll try anyhow. . . . Eight issues have been completed so far and only one more to do—one happy day! Wonder if we'll get honorable mention in the Kent Stage Newspaper Contest like we did last year? Sure hope so. Boy that was a swell dance we had in May — everyone said so—first all-school formal we've ever had, I guess . . . The Mirror even made a LITTLE profit believe it or not.

Such is the life of a Mirror Editor . . . It's worth it though — if you can live through it.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council was organized last year at the mid-term; as it proved successful it was continued this year.

There are members chosen from each of the four classes, making a total of twelve. These twelve members are divided into four general committees: The Service Committee, Athletic Committee, Educational Committee, and Social Committee. Each committee has its own duties to perform for the benefit of the student body.

The Council sponsored the first social affair of the year—a sport dance was held in the high school gym in September.

At the Stunt Night Program the Council presented an all-boy's ballet.

A Christmas Play was given by the members at an assembly program.

Other activities were a sleigh ride and the selling of pop corn and hot dogs at the Carnival on March 28th.

The officers for the year were as follows: William Pethtel, President; Janice Lange, Vice-President; Jean Stimpert, Secretary; and Sam Hathaway, Treasurer. Miss Richardson was the adviser.

SCENE 3

SCHOLARSHIP CLUB

All but two members of the club attended the scholarship banquet held at Kirtland in February. The trip was made by bus, and we were accompanied by Mr. Trescott and Mrs. Johnson. Kirtland entertained us with dancing in the gymnasium following the banquet.

Shirley Miller was elected treasurer of the Lake County Scholarship Clubs. Needless to say, we are proud of her.

SCENE 4

SENIOR PLAY

On April 7th and 8th the Senior Class of '41 presented "Clarence", a sparkling comedy by Booth Tarkington, in the Madison High School Auditorium.

The story concerns a wounded soldier and former scientist, who is employed by a rich wise-cracking family, that has plenty of internal troubles. This quiet scientist, Clarence, helps set things in order again and then marries the governess.

A profit of $110 was realized after all debts were paid. The cast enjoyed very much their work with Mrs. Trescott and Mrs. Johnson.

MRS. S. B. TRESCOTT

who so willingly gave us of her time, patience,
and talent in directing the Senior Play,
"Clarence."

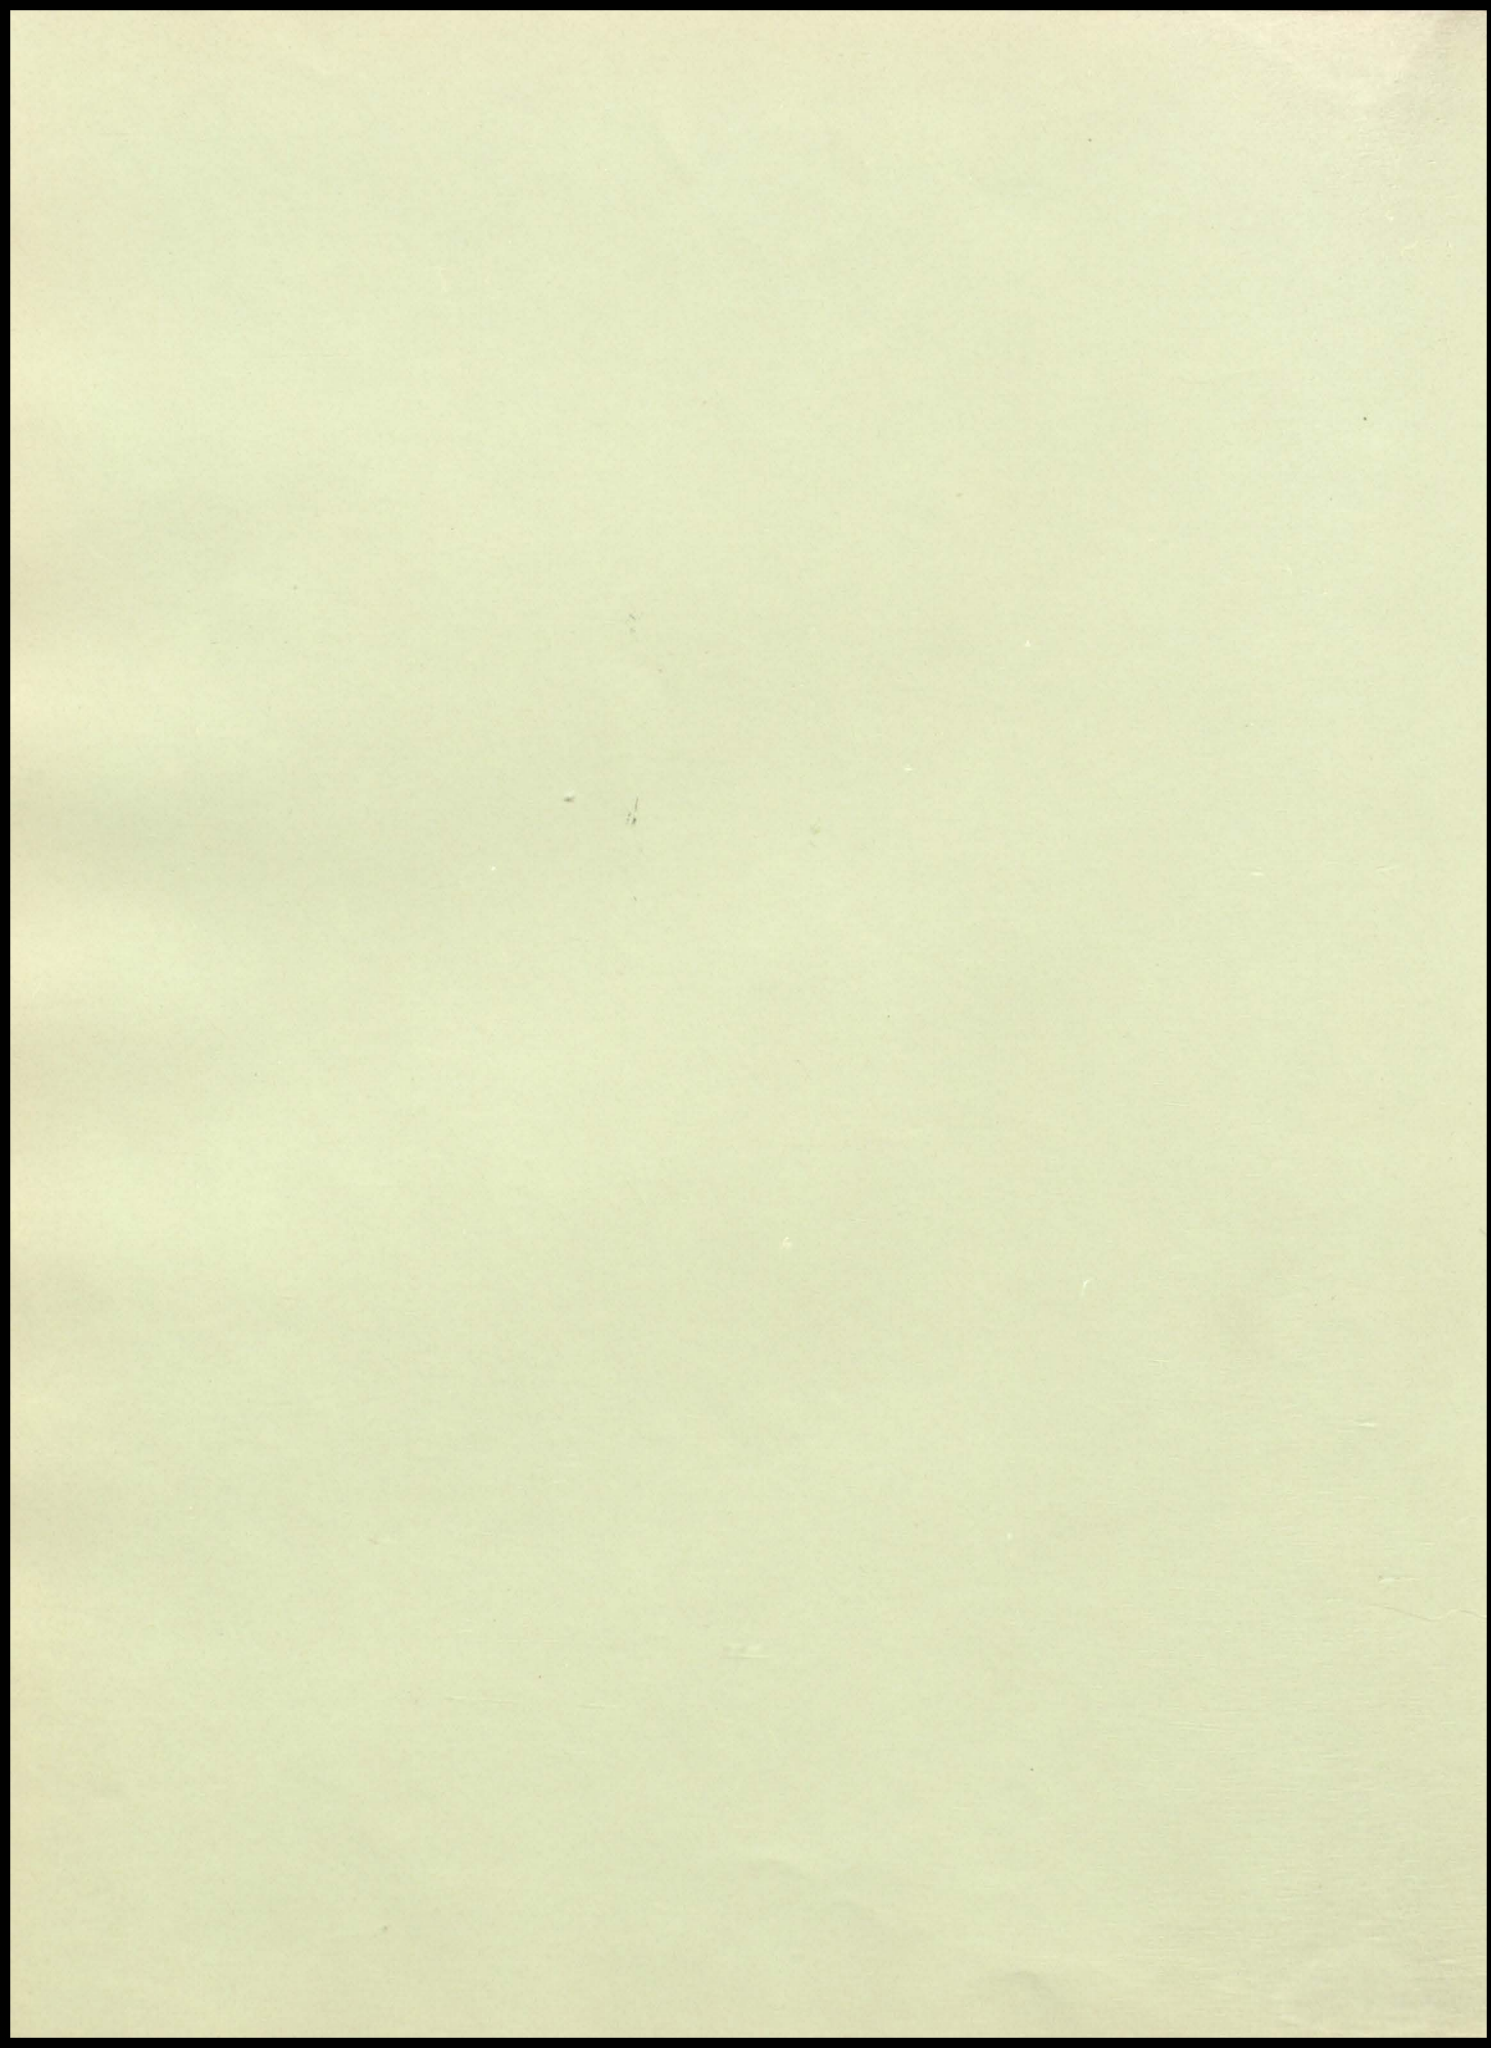

To her we owe, in part, the publication of this Caldron, for without the money made on the play there could not have been an annual.

All the money for publication was raised by the Senior Class. The pictures were taken by Mr. Charles Loughridge of the Loughridge Studios in Willoughby. The Engraving was done by Jahn and Ollier of Chicago. The covers were made by the Mueller Art Cover Company in Cleveland. The printing was done by The Painesville Telegraph.

CHORUS

An all-girl chorus was organized in the fall of 1940 for the first time in the history of M. M. H. S. From a group of nearly fifty, thirty-one girls were chosen by means of various tests given by the director, Mr. Warner.

At the beginning of the year officers were elected. Frances Trescott was elected president; Evelyn Clemens, vice-president; and Fay Green, secretary-treasurer. A committee of five was also selected to serve on a board to decide questions which might arise. A constitution was drawn up and unanimously adopted by the chorus.

Several projects were planned for the rest of the year: a Christmas assembly program, entrance in the district and state contests, an annual concert, and a radio program.

A good deal of hard work on the part of both members and director has made the chorus an outstanding organization in the school and community.

SCENE 4

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

The Future Farmers of America is an organization composed of the students of Vocational Agriculture.

At the beginning of the year the following officers were elected: President, William Sager; Vice-President, Robert Schultz; Secretary, Frank Bair; Treasurer, Sam Hathaway; Reporter, Harold Berwaldt.

The F. F. A. has been very active in the field of sports. A basketball team was organized and won 5 of the 9 games played. Plans for a baseball team have been made.

The organization sponsored a school carnival last year, and due to its great success another was sponsored this year.

The members enjoyed several weiner roasts and fishing trips during the past year.
