Football "78" — Almost Tops.

After losing the Little Brown Jug trophy in a close game of 28-31 to Perry in the first game of the season, our determined varsity football team moved up to take second in the Northeastern Conference by defeating St. John, Riverside, Harbor, Ashtabula City, and Conneaut.

One of the memorable games for different reasons was the Riverside Homecoming Game. While we had a big win, the game was ended with the Riverside coach having a heart attack. This was just one of the strange events of a very different season.

Several football players were accorded individual honors this fall for outstanding achievements. Bob Orr was selected as the most valuable offensive player in N.E.C., 1st Team All

Lake County and 1st Team All News Herald. He was also selected for 1st Team Northeast Associated Press and received an All State Special Mention. Bill Whitehair also made 1st Team N.E.C. and 1st Team All County, along with 2nd Team News Herald. Jim Zirkel and John Wargelin both made 1st Team All County and 2nd Team N.E.C. Greg Elder, who was chosen for 1st Team N.E.C., was also given a News Herald Special Mention. Players chosen for 2nd Team N.E.C. included Greg Lyons, Scott Dade, Mark Brandt, Dave Black and Ken Blystone. Jim DiPofi, Scott Clark, Joel Gibbon, Bill Bates, Rick Fenton and Glen Potter were awarded N.E.C. Honorable Mentions.

Crystal Dawn And "Lights Go Down In City"

This year's homecoming dance was held in the high school cafeteria from 8 - 11 p.m. Couples danced to the music provided by Crystal Dawn. The scenery and decorations depicted the theme—"When the Lights Go Down in the City".

Senior Class President David Black crowned Queen Sandi Snyder at the exciting game the night before, in which we beat Conneaut 27-26. The court consisted of Joan Baron, Jean Hoffman, Won Sang Lee and Brenda Orris.

Marching Band Places High At Contest.

This year's marching band must be counted as one of the best in a history of excellent bands. In addition to a full summer schedule of rehearsals and parades, the band made its yearly trip to Ripley, West Virginia for five days of intensive work.

On their return, the band played at all football half-time shows, three invitational festivals and one contest, where they placed first on parade and second on field competition.

Field Hockey Has Rebuilding Season

Composed mainly of freshmen, sophomores and juniors, the girls' field hockey team competed against some outstanding teams. Most of the games were against schools in the greater Cleveland area.

Although the overall score was one win, six losses and two ties, the outstanding defense seldom let the opposing team make more than one or two goals. The highlight of the season was a 3-0 win over Andrews School for Girls.

Vo-Ed Provides Training For Students

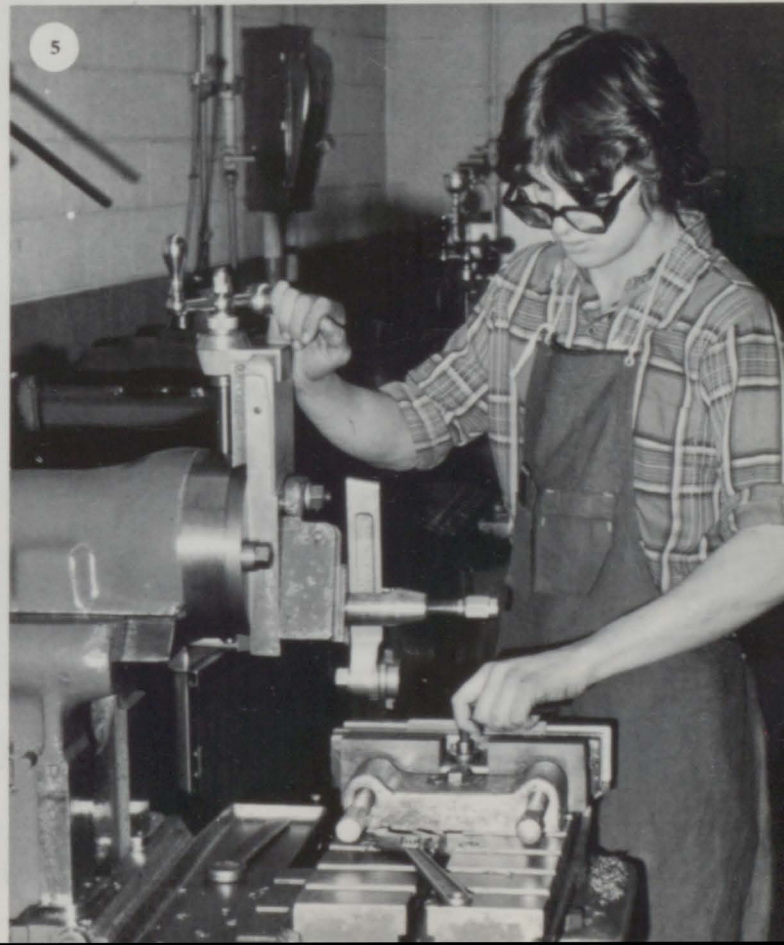

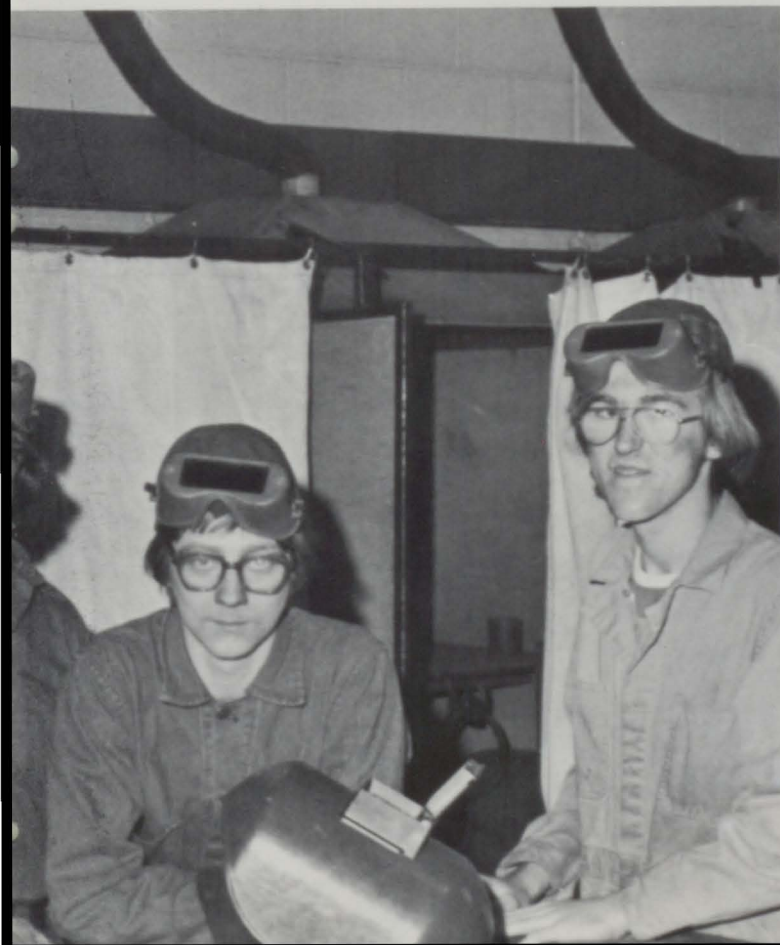

Every regular school day, and even some that aren't, juniors and seniors of Madison High meet with those of Kirtland, Riverside, and Perry High Schools at the Auburn Career Center. Here they are given experience in the career of their choice. Most of these programs consist of three hours of lab and one and one-half hours of related book work, although several offer cooperative programs where the student spends part of the day in on-the-job training.

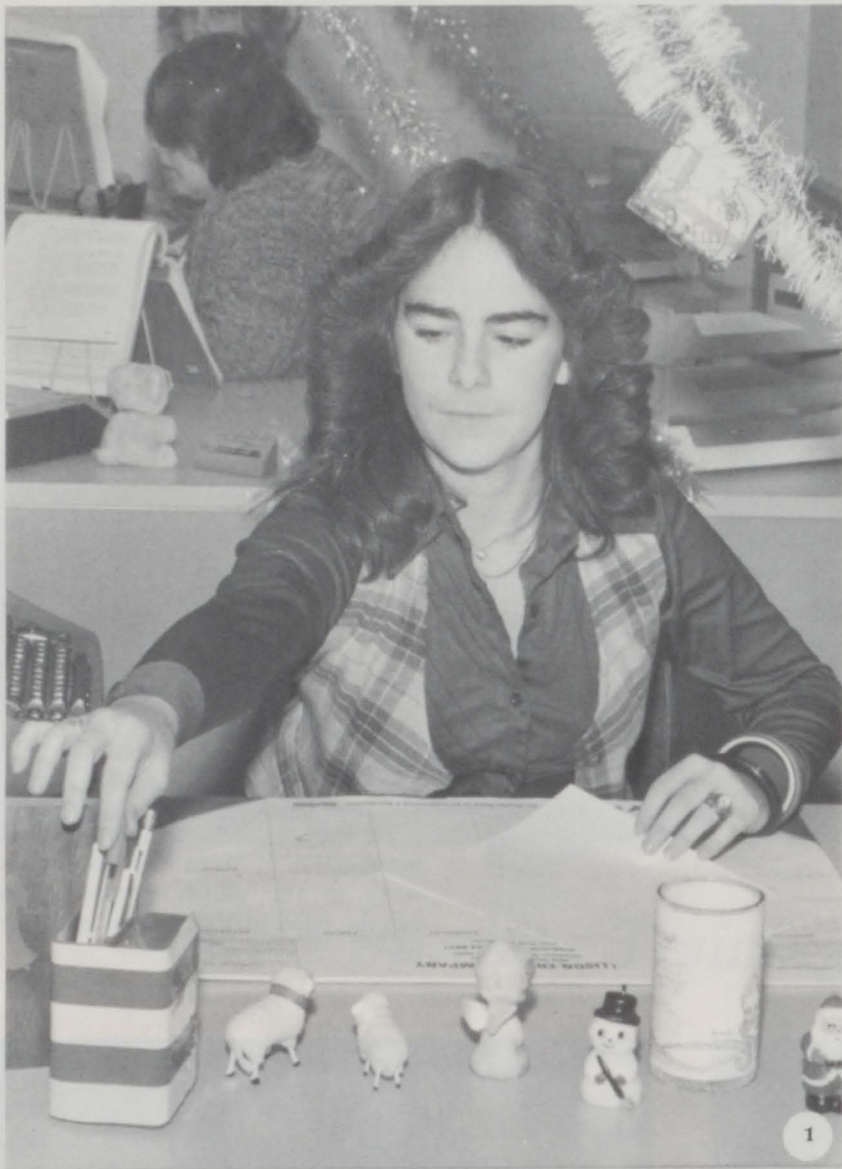

Attending the vocational school gives one the opportunity to participate in many contests and activities relatively unknown to our student body and win honors not only at the classroom level but also county, state and national honors. Mark Meadows is an example of one who received recognition for not only scoring the highest in his electricity-electronics class but also placed in the top hundred in the entire state on the Trade and Industry Exam in his junior year.

1. Joel Gibbon chips flux build up from his welding bead. 2. Debbie Moore works on a customer's hair. 3. Dan Troglen, John Ramsey, Chris Shahan, Ted McGuire and Craig Cleversy take a break during welding. 4. Debbie Hafstein practices medical procedures on a mannequin. 5. Dave Ross aligns his work in the planer preparing to cut the necessary shape for a repair part.

1. Mindy Brown prepares to write a complaint about these rude interruptions in high skill steno. 2. Bob Ogden finishes his wood project. 3. Jamie Sulzbach prepares punch cards for data processing. 4. Bill Hash demonstrates a visual presentation of an accident report for court hearings. 5. Nelson Bennet does final clean-up after completion of repairs. 6. Ken Nichols, Scott Burk, and John Howard take a lunch break.

MADISON HIGH SCHOOL

Cogers Bounce Through Outstanding Season.

Having no starter over 6'2", the Blue Streak basketball team was able to out rebound the opponent in all but two of their exciting eighteen game schedule.

The Streaks played before the largest crowds in the history of our gym. The average crowd numbered about 1100 fans with peaks of 2000 for the last three home contests.

Peaks of the season were the fantastic double victories over the Geneva Eagles, who somehow ended up winner of the League championship. The Streaks also defeated Ashtabula City twice, another first for our school, and finished runner-up in the league with a 11-3 school record and a 13-5 over all season.

Leading the passing attack was 6'1" senior Tony Naughton, who broke our school record for assists per game, with 14 in the 67-63 win over Geneva.

Jeff Cody and Ken Solden averaged around 20 points a game for the entire season. Ken has set several records in his three years of varsity playing. Greg Koski had several exciting games, highlighted with a last second 25 foot jump shot to defeat Euclid High in our opening sectional tournament. Scott Booth played tenacious defense all season, holding Brad Gee of Conneaut to six points, knocking them out of the league title.

The team's fantastic performances all year helped the sixth year coach, Jim Dolan, to be named Regional Press Coach of the Year in the Lake County area.

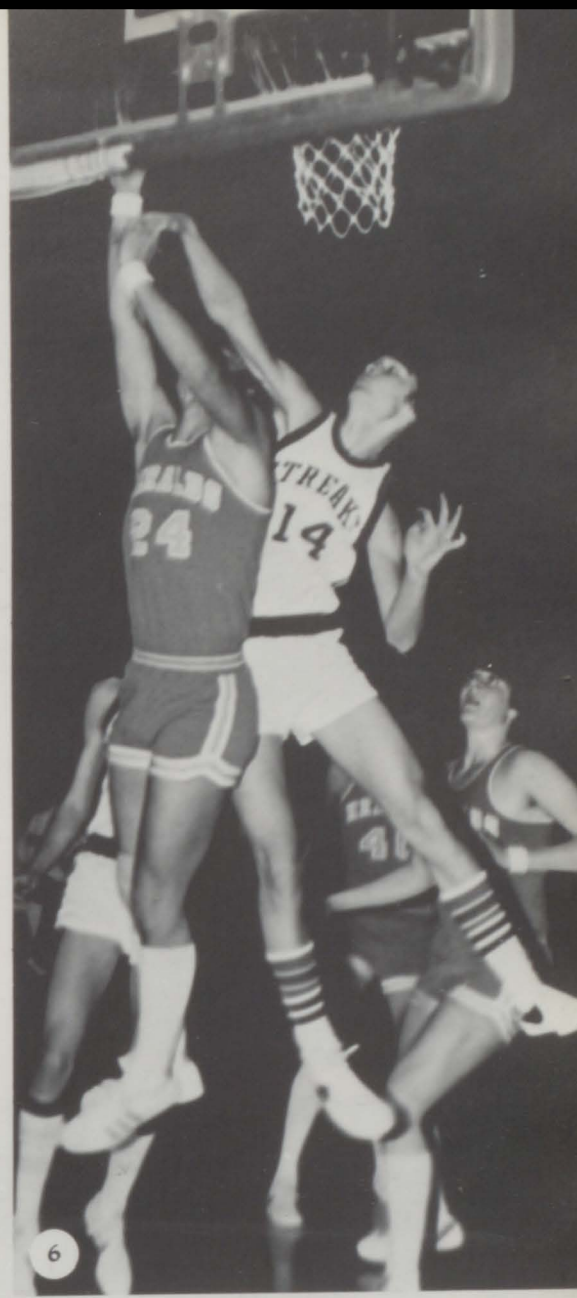

Our ninth grade team was co-champ of the league with a 11-2 record, and our J.V. team was 11-7.

1. Our 1978-79 J.V. basketball cheerleaders: Sharon Kepes, Cindy Carrick, Angela Stubblefield, Mary Eland, Sue Swartzwelder, and Carol Amos. 2. Tony Naughton applies pressure on defense. 3. Scott Booth eagerly awaits the rebound. 4. Ken Solden concentrates on his shot. 5. Jeff Cody outreaches his opponent for the ball. 6. Coach Dolan and his bench watch the game with interest.

1. Tony Naughton guards a St. John opponent. 2. Jeff Cody gets fouled on the way to the basket. 3. Tony Naughton collides in mid air with an Edgewood opponent. 4. Varsity basketball cheerleaders for this year are: Kathy Walsh, Charlette Morrison, Monica Nahra, Julie Girton, Sue Waldo, and Beth Kurila. 5. Greg Koski goes up for rebound against Geneva while Scott Booth and Ken Solden look on. 6. Mark Naughton goes up to block a St. John shot. 7. Scott Booth shows Madison's intense determination.

Girls Season Highlighted By Eastlake Upset

Our girls' basketball team started the season with a well played game against Lake Catholic, which they lost by only three points. The next two were easy victories. A rough loss to Geneva was followed by seven wins. One outstanding game to an overflow crowd at Geneva overcame the early loss and was an outstanding effort, which gained us a second place to Geneva in league play. A disappointing loss to Harbor ended our losing ways. There was a close win over Ash-tabula, and two easy ones brought us to the game of the year against Eastlake North, third ranked in the state, where a great effort saw a 62-45 victory for the Streaks and a great 15-3 season end.

The team was comprised of several outstanding girls. Mary Tarbuck won News Herald Player of the Week, 1st team N.E.C., and All Lake County. Karen Cicenas was selected for the Cleveland Plain Dealer Dream Team.

Miss Phillips is justly proud of her girls, who put forth some real effort this year. The team was made up of Karen Cicenas (captain and leading rebounder), Kathy Moss, Mary Tarbuck (captain, leading scorer, best foul shooter, most assists, most steals), Sandy Daughters, Colleen Haase, Micky Jones, LeeAnn Ortiz, Jenny Smith, Kim Saba, Carolyn Wirfel, and Lisa Potti.

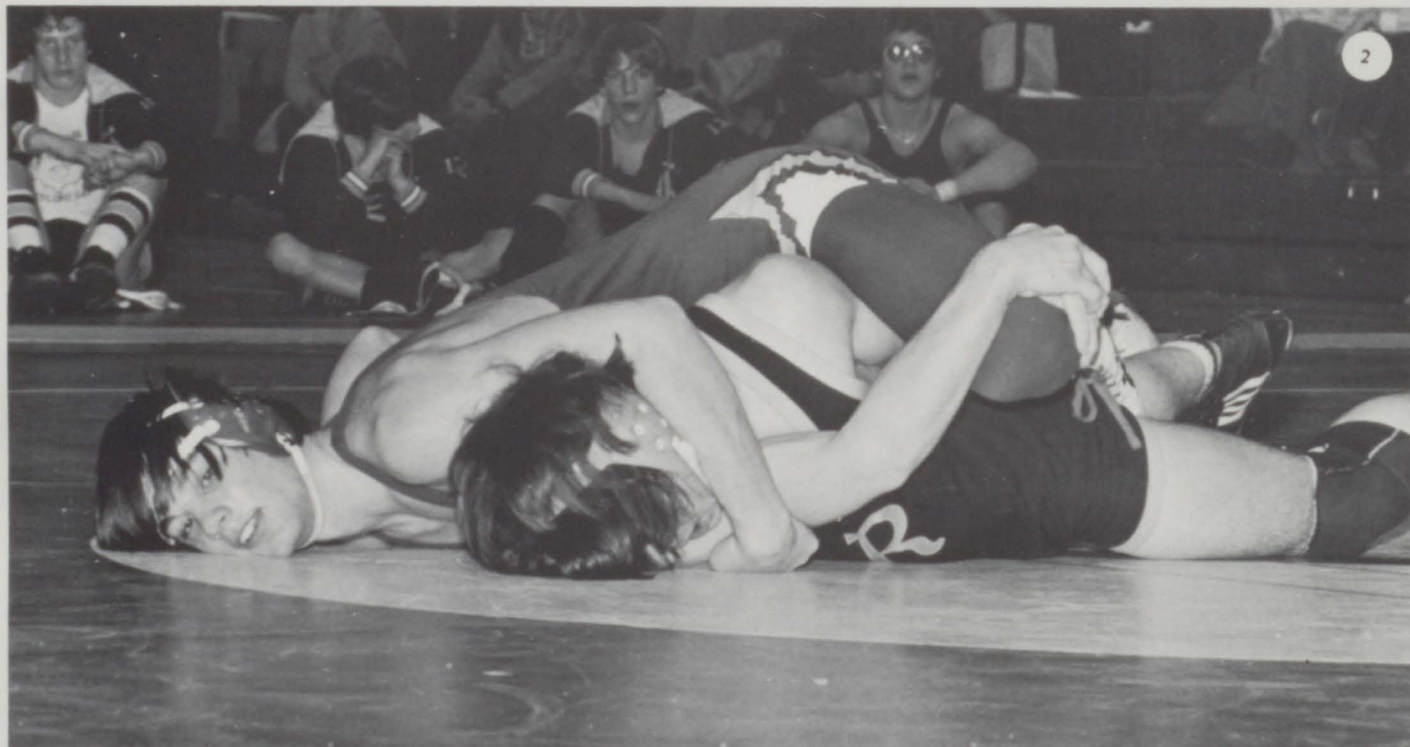

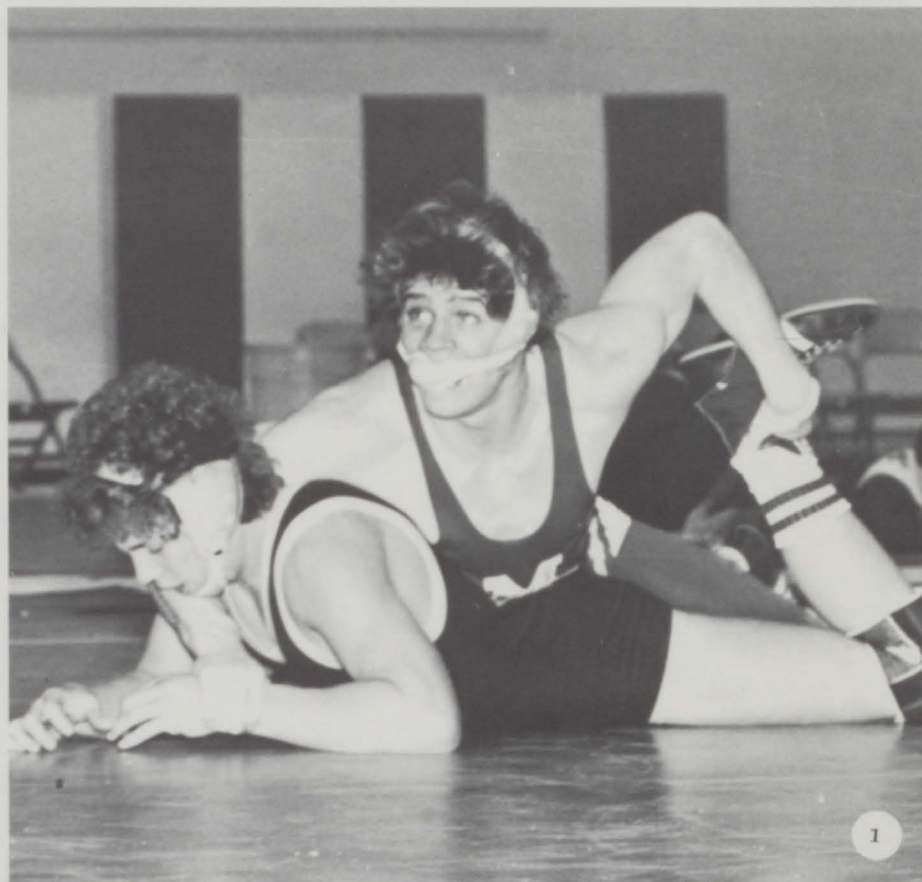

1. Karen Cicenias rebounds the ball from our Geneva opponents. 2. The mighty Blue Streaks go for another two points. 3. Mary Tarbuck shoots for a long shot. 4. Karen Cicenias tries for another shot. 5. Karen Cicenias never fails Madison with her jump shots.

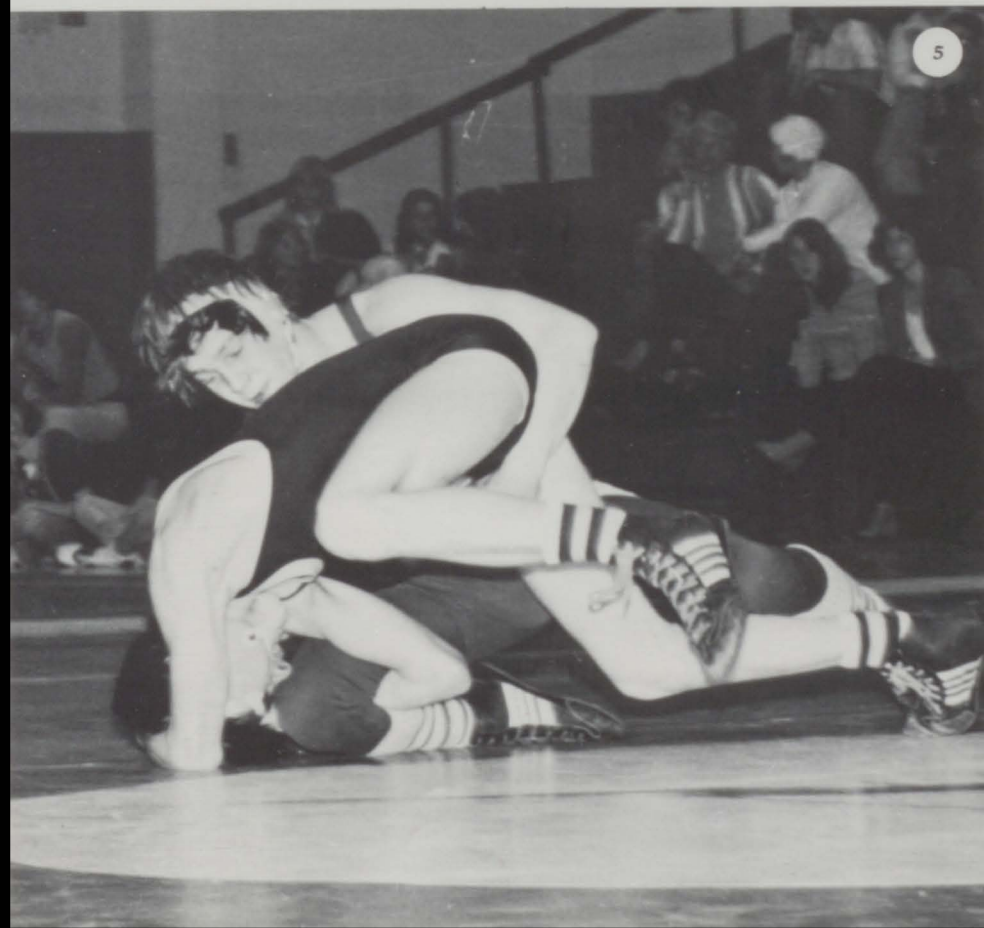

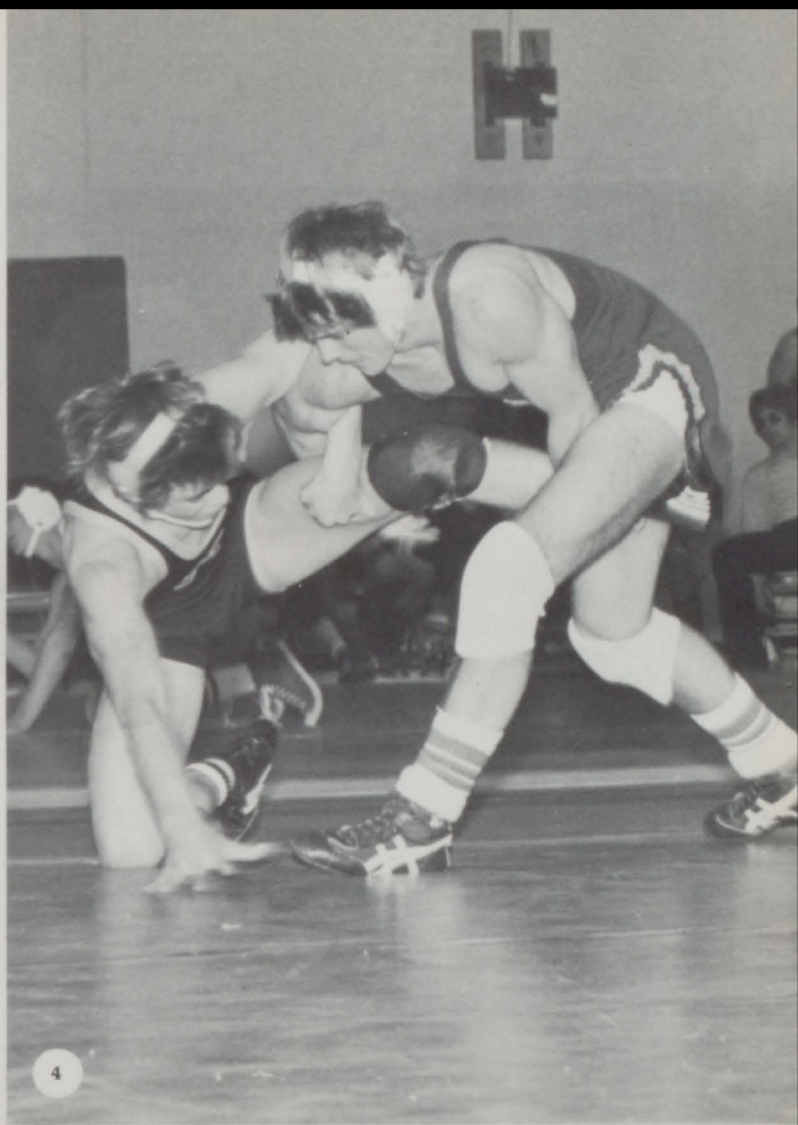

Wrestling Team Has Undefeated Season.

Our varsity wrestling team had another strong season this year, finishing 12-0 overall and 6-0 in N.E.C. meets. This year they avenged last year's loss to Riverside by beating them 25-20. Unfortunately, Madison lost the conference tournament by a narrow margin to Riverside, since they had slightly more depth. In addition to N.E.C. meets our team met Chardon, Wickliffe, Eastlake North, West Geauga and Kenston.

The J.V.s, who often filled in for varsity players that were injured or sick, finished 7-4-1 overall and 4-2 in all N.E.C. meets.

Outstanding wrestlers were Jeff Notte (12-0), Scooter Darnell (10-0), Jim Aumick (12-0), Jack Scott (6-0) and Bret Bennett (11-0).

1. Bill Whitehair checks on the time during his match. 2. Jim Aumick applies pressure to get back points. 3. Dan Yard struggles to retain control in his 175 pound match. 4. Bill Bates shoots in for a single-leg takedown. 5. Jeff Notte stacks his opponent.

Proper Holds Help Make It!

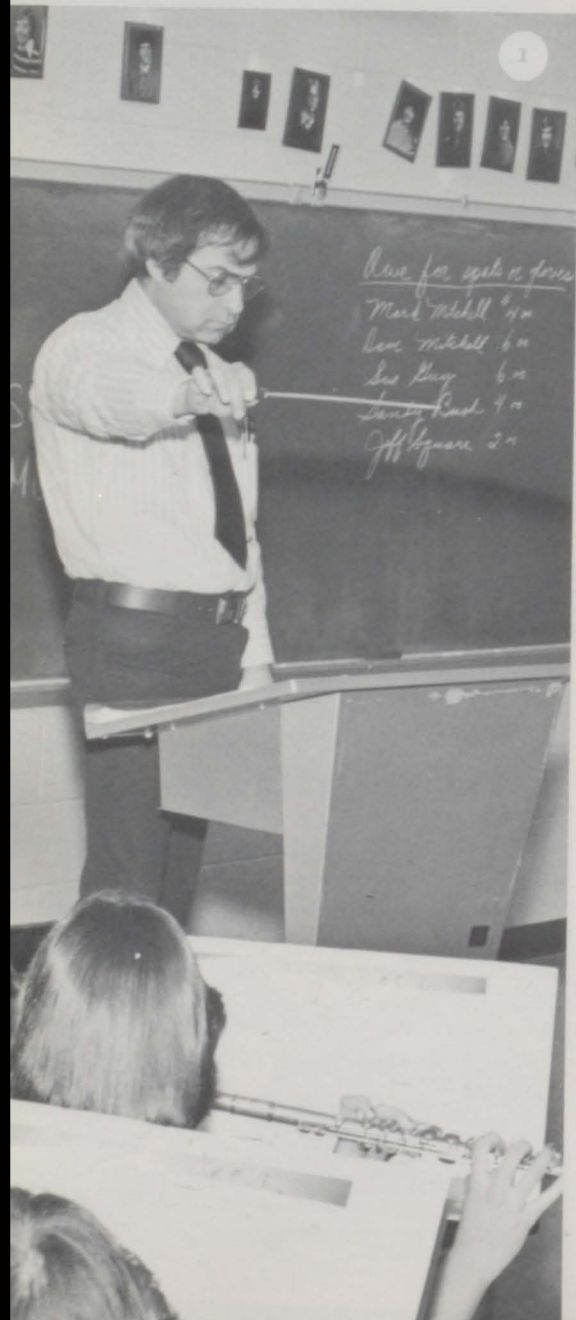

1. Jeff Notte throughs in a chicken wing to thoroughly torture his opponent. 2. Scooter Darnell works toward a take down against a Riverside opponent. 3. Jeff Notte applies pressure for a pin. 4. Scooter Darnell takes down his opponent. 5. John Howard: "Now that I got him up here, what do I do with him?" 6. Dan Yard rides out his opponent.

Symphonic Band Plays The Best Music In Town

When marching season ends, the band comes indoors to play serious concert music. This band participates in concert band festivals, local and school concerts, and the district and state music contests.

There is a serious attempt to play difficult music well and to maintain a high level of playing. This year the band also participated in exchange concerts with other schools.

1. Mr. Acerra thinks of a way to punish people who owe for spats and gloves. 2. Trombone players fake their way through another song. 3. Judy Meadows, Pam Roa, Barb Norton, and Carolyn Wirfel lead the trumpet section through song after song. 4. The band thoroughly concentrates on their piece of music. 5. Mr. Soriano directs the concert band sixth period. 6. The stage band was a new addition to the music department this year.

Mrs. Mullen Heads The Senior Choir.

This year the senior choir has a new choir director, Mrs. Mullen. She has come to the high school after several years' work in the middle schools, where her groups received acclamation from the community.

The choir schedules performances in the fall, winter, and spring. They gave a Christmas concert at Randal Park Mall and are planning to attend the county music contest and festival.

Mrs. Mullen is also the director of the mixed choir, which is composed of those who desire choir experience and wish to perform with the senior choir. The choral ensemble consists of selected members who enjoy performing alone.

Senior Choir Brings Melody To The School.

1. Senior choir rehearses for an upcoming festival.
2. Girls ensemble entertains the audience at a band and choir concert.
3. Senoir choir officers: Kathy Damm, Jean Cooper, Gracia Rice, and Kathy Inconvati.
4. Mrs. Mullen has taken over the choir duties this past year.

Gong Show Brings Laughs To Madison Again

The second annual Gong Show was a big success again this year. Under the direction of Mrs. Eaglen, there were many people who participated in the drama club's production.

The Gong Show started out with a bang with our emcee, Mr. Leitch, who came straight from the mathematics department. Mr. (African Ape) Hanes, Mr. (as himself) Linhart, and Mr. (Conehead) Morgan handled the important job of being judges. They had a difficult time deciding on the winners. Mike Cooper took first by a great magic trick. Jacklyn Masters danced her way into second place, while Pam North and Jean Cooper were right down on the farm when they received third.

1. Mr. Hanes, Mr. Linhart, and Mr. Morgan judged the Gong Show. 2. Mr. (Conehead) Morgan does the disco with Mr. Hanes. 3. This wild and wacky Gong Show band played some real crazy songs. 4. Mike, our magic magician, miraculously preforms another breath-taking miracle. 5. Gene Cooper and Pam North are glad that they are country girls.

OUR ORGANIZATIONS

Mrs. Braunlich, our new National Honor Society advisor.

National Honor Society Has New Advisor for 1979

Mrs. Braunlich is the advisor of the Madison Chapter of the National Honor Society, which plans induction for March 20, 1979. Unfortunately, this date is too late to have the new members pictured in this yearbook. All juniors and seniors who have a minimum grade point average of 3.0 are eligible for membership, which is then based on character, leadership and service. Once chosen by a vote of the faculty, each member is expected to maintain these standards that were used as a basis for his election.

A.F.S. Gives Students A Chance To Go Abroad

Their main objective was to make the student body and community aware of the program and to raise the necessary funds to bring a foreign exchange student to Madison next fall. The club sponsored a short term exchange with Roga, a student from Iceland presently attending Ashtabula Harbor, and Jose, a boy from Spain now at Kirtland High.

To be considered a possible exchange student one must be a junior who has taken at least one year of a foreign language and maintained a B average. The candidate must also be voted on by the Madison chapter. We have two possible students chosen from Madison to go abroad this summer.

This year our American Field Service chapter was reactivated after several years of inactivity.

German Club Holds First Fall Camp

All students who are taking or have taken German are invited to participate in the activities of the German Club. These activities include meetings, skiing trips, and German camps. The meetings, held at members' homes, can increase one's vocabulary and expand his knowledge of life in Germany by talking to people who have either visited or lived there. Skiing trips give one the opportunity to experience one of Germany's most popular pastime activities.

Mr. Strother, the German club advisor, organized the first "Bundesrepublik Brindaban" (German camp) four years ago. This year for the first time a fall camp was held for advanced speaking students. These twenty-five students attended classes taught completely in German, played German soccer, and participated in a variety of other activities for the two days they visited Camp Klein. A spring camp is planned for June, which will allow the students who did not attend the fall camp to develop their conversational skills in a more relaxed atmosphere where English and German will be permitted.

Your A.V. Puts Pictures And Sounds Together.

The audio-visual department is responsible for sending out all A.V. equipment, setting up and running the lights, score board and speakers at home football games and taping home wrestling matches and basketball games.

Joining A.V., headed by Mr. Linhart, is a great way to escape from study hall; but like everything else there is a catch. One must have a serious desire to work and maintain a C average.

1. Mark Larned tries to figure out the complexities of loading a movie projector. 2. Mr. Linhart heads the A.V. department. 3. Brenda Orris, Keith Kettlewood, Keith Chaffee, Scott Spaulding, and Neil Snyder do their thing in A.V.

Language Club Broadens Students Horizons

Both the Spanish and French clubs meet monthly at members' homes. Miss Zonker's Spanish club held a Christmas fiesta, at which they broke a pinata and sang Spanish carols. The money they raised by selling Blue Streak pennants will go towards a Spanish camp in June. The French club, advised by Mrs. Strother, plans a trip to the art museum and is also looking forward to a spring camp.

1. Spanish club officers: Vice President Ken Lowthian, President Scott Leone, Secretary Michelle Horvath, and Treasurer Norm Smyke. 2. Jon Austen is the president of the French club, with Rich Bliss as vice president, Jackie Masters as secretary, and Allyson Chapin as treasurer.

Cauldron Brings Back Memories Of Events Past.

Work on the Cauldron begins in July and is not ceased until the final yearbook is distributed in June. During the summer the members of the Cauldron staff solicit advertising to businesses in Madison and neighboring communities to cover the cost of color pages. From September until March layouts must be made, photographs must be taken and identified, and copy must be written and typed before it can be sent to the publisher to meet the set deadlines. When the yearbooks arrive in late May or early June, they must be protected with plastic covers and passed out to the students anxiously awaiting to see the result of the staff's persistent labor.

With three of the eight students who meet with Mr. Heichel fourth period graduating (Dale Crawford, Ed Giunca and Brenda Miller) new members are needed to complete next year's staff. Working on the Cauldron not only gives one practical experience in putting out an actual publication but also provides the opportunity to contribute to something which will be valued by many for many years.

Student Council Sponsors Blood Mobil

The student council of Madison High School is an organized group of students working for the benefit of our school and student body. They meet once a week to discuss matters pertaining to our school. At these meetings they plan a variety of different activities and organize student exchanges between our school and others to give students the opportunity to see how other schools function. At Christmas the student council collected food for the needy to make their Christmas a little merrier.

Girls Club Features Slave Sale

The G.I.R.L.S. Club members demonstrated their generosity, industry, reliability, leadership and service in several ways this year. "Slave Day" was on the calendar once again when the girls were auctioned off before school to the highest bidder. With the proceeds of "Slave Day" the club donated twenty dollars to each of three needy families at Christmas. Among their other activities they sponsored a Valentine's Day Dance, a Powder Puff Basketball Game, and struggled to remain silent on "Hush Day".

New members are chosen each spring by the existing members, and initiation takes place two days later. Mrs. Lee is the G.I.R.L.S. Club advisor.

Key Club Serves The Community

1. G.I.R.L.S. Club officers: Terri Gagliardi, president; Brenda Orris, secretary; Lisa Wirfel, treasurer; and Jenny Rose, vice president. 2. Mr. Leitch: "Well, I know we'll get at least $2.00 for you." 3. G.I.R.L.S. Club members bravely await their new masters. 4. Key Club officers: Dave Black, secretary, Rick Fenton, Sargent of arms; and Jeff Davisson, president. 5. Mike Cooper and Mike Leone ham it up during a pep assembly. 6. Mike D'Avirro checks out the new Key Club members.

The Key Club, under the direction of Mr. Haines, is sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Madison. This has been the first year that the club has been open to all students who have wished to join. To become a member one must go through initiation, which this year included dressing up as a cheerleader and performing in front of the student body during a pep assembly. Once in the Key Club one must maintain a good grade point average and earn service points, which can be attained by participating in the club's projects, to retain membership.

The Key Club used money they raised by holding a car wash and sponsoring a dance to provide needy families of the community with food baskets at Christmas. The club also plans to donate a trophy case to the resource center.

Drama Club: Apple Tree And Gong Show.

The drama club kept us entertained throughout another year by several light-hearted productions. The "Gong Show" has become an annual event, and this year it was not only amusing, but amazing. "The Apple Tree", a musical comedy divided into two parts, "Adam and Eve", and "Passionella", was presented in January. "Adam and Eve" depicted life as it first was, showing the tenderness and warmth of their relationship. The zany "Passionella" was a take off on "Cinderella". A spring play is planned, but has not as yet been selected.

Ms. Eaglen, the drama club advisor, is also responsible for choosing the students to read the morning announcements, which are forever embedded into our minds.

Check Out The Chess Club Handkerchiefs

The chess club begins meeting in the early part of October and continues until the latter part of March. This year about fifteen members met with Mr. Winfield every Wednesday for about two hours after school to play chess and show each other new moves.

The club's major fund raising project was the Sale of Blue Streak handkerchiefs to wave at basketball games.

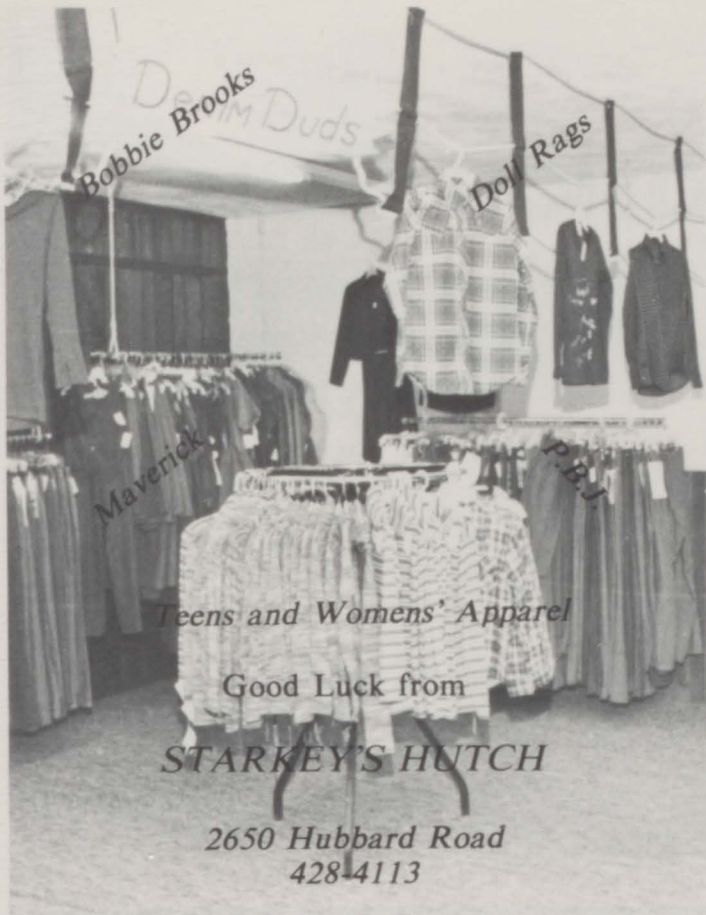

1. Angela Stubblefield offers Kathy Damm a bite of the forbidden apple. 2. One of the actors gets a lift? 3. Passionella (Heidi Quiggle) makes her most startling entrance. 4. Greg Standinger and Dirk Woodood watch as Doug Johnson prepares to make his play. 5. Sam Russo ponders his next move. 6. Dave Whipple and Dennis Heichel print handkerchiefs for the club's fund raising.

Service Club Raises Funds For Athletics

The members of the service club are responsible for selling refreshments at the home wrestling matches and basketball games. This year the club, under the supervision of Mr. Piker and Mr. Winfield raised over one thousand dollars for the athletic department.

1. Cheryl Paine and Gina Simons keep the popcorn popin'. 2. Darla Bohl makes sure the candy counter is always stocked. 3. Brenda Miller serves refreshments to sports fans.

The 1978 girls' softball team finished third in the N.E.C., behind Riverside and Conneaut. The varsity team was comprised of Jean Cooper and Lisa Wirfel, pitchers; Linda Anderson, Candy Saunders, Lee Ann Ortis, and Carolyn Wirfel, outfield; Lynda Carroll and Micky Jones, first base; Kelee Booth and Sally Crawford, second base; Mary Tarbuck, shortstop; Cindy Illig, third base; and Diane Henrietta behind the plate.

Linda Anderson was selected 1st team N.E.C. in right field with three home runs, four triples, and a .400 batting average. Both Candy Saunders, who led the team and the league in hitting with a .615 batting average, and Mary Tarbuck, who led the team with 28 runs batted in, were selected to the N.E.C. 2nd all-league team.

Track Team Finished Second In N.E.C.

The 1978 boys' track team finished the season with a dual meet win-loss record of 6-2. The highlight of the season was a third place finish in the Geneva Relays.

The team had only two graduating seniors; Tom Shumaker and Bill Orr. Tom was an outstanding sprinter and led the team in scoring. Bill was a high jumper and also ran on the relay teams.

Two other outstanding performers were Gary Skoch and Larry Jopko in the pole vault. Larry eventually went on to set a new school record of thirteen feet, six inches.

Most of the team was comprised of sophomores and juniors, so we can expect a bright future.

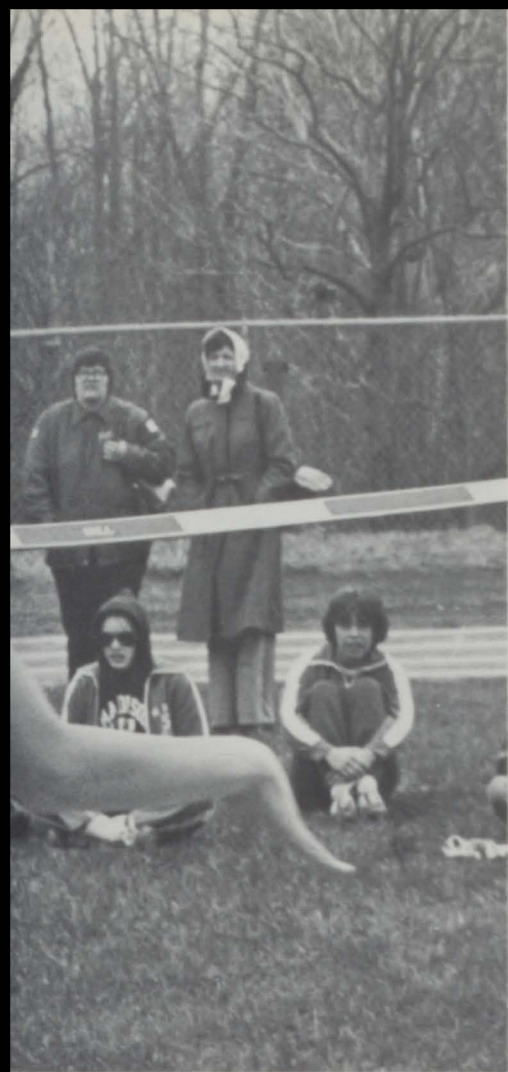

Girls Track - State Qualifiers

The girls' track team qualified for the state meet for the fourth consecutive year in 1978. Qualifiers for the district meets included Jamie Sulzbach in the mile and the 880 relay, Kim Saba in the shot put, and Jackie Kloes in the high jump. Jackie also placed sixth in the high jump at the state meet.

The team came out as champs in the Blue Streak Invitational, Elmer Gray Invitational, and Brush Relays. The girls finished off the year with a 7-0 dual meet and a 4-0 in the Northeastern Conference.

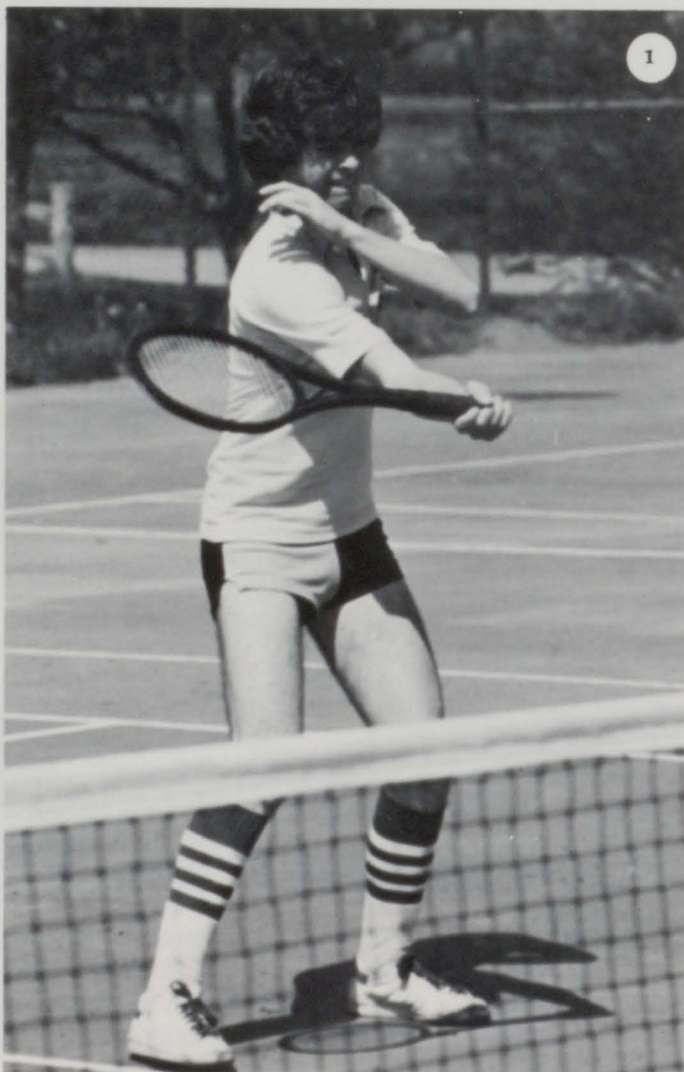

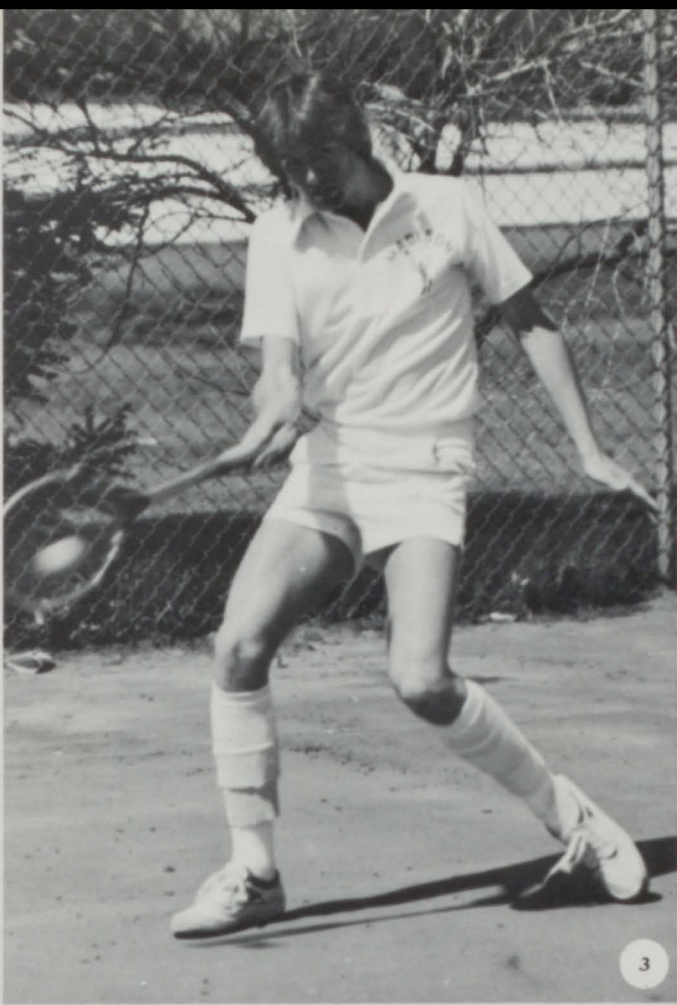

1. Monica Nahra puts all of her energy into the long jump. 2. Monica Nahra skims over the bar for the winning jump. 3. Judy Meadows puts the shot in orbit.

4. Evon Hissam stretches for that extra foot. 5. Gail Wilson flies over the hurdles for another Madison win.

Tennis Team Takes Third In N.E.C.

The 1978 tennis team, in its third year, came through with a much improved season over last year. Finishing third in the Northeastern Conference, they beat every team they played with the exception of Geneva and Ashtabula City. The team was composed of senior Rick Bilski; juniors Dale Crawford, Dave Isaac, Scott Repinski, and Jeff Square; and sophomores Ian Gilchrist and Greg Koski. Competing in two leagues this year, the team also defeated schools which included Shaw, Glenville, and Nordonia.

1. Dave Isaac burns his opponent with his net play. 2. Greg Koski returns with a powerful backhand. 3. Keep your eye on the ball, Greg! 4. Scott Repinski shows his all-star form against a Perry opponent.

At the 1978 prom, held on May 12th at Madison Country Club, juniors and seniors were treated by the music of "Draft", along with refreshments and colorful decorations, consisting mainly of palm trees. The theme song, "Dust in the Wind", was enjoyed by all, especially by Queen Jacqueline Kloes and King Daniel Foote.

This year's prom, as always, was sponsored by the junior class. Magazine sales supplied most of the money needed to meet the expenses. Miss Kraus advised the prom committee, the members of which were responsible for making the prom a success.

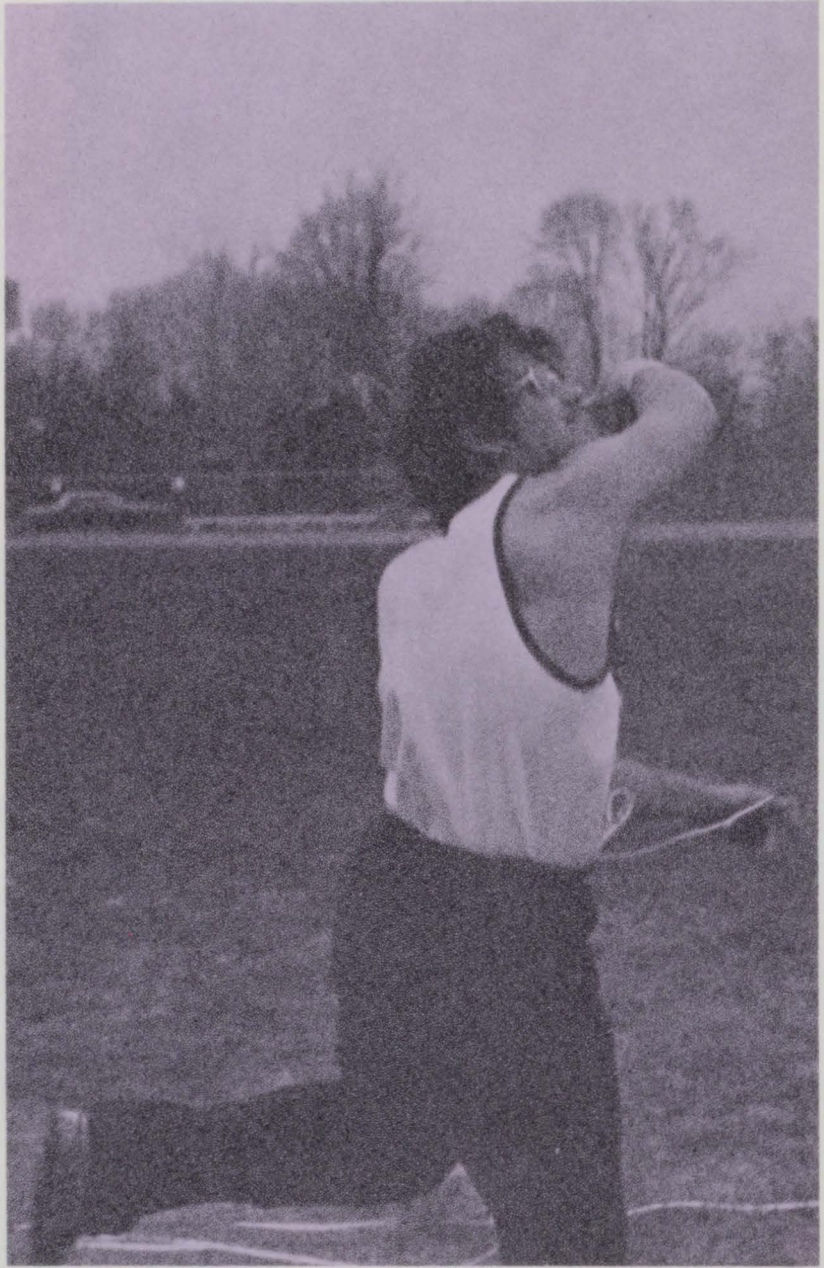

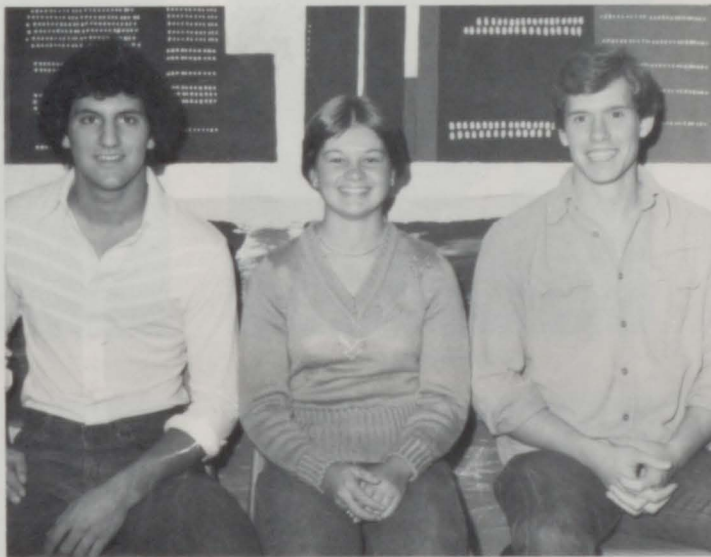

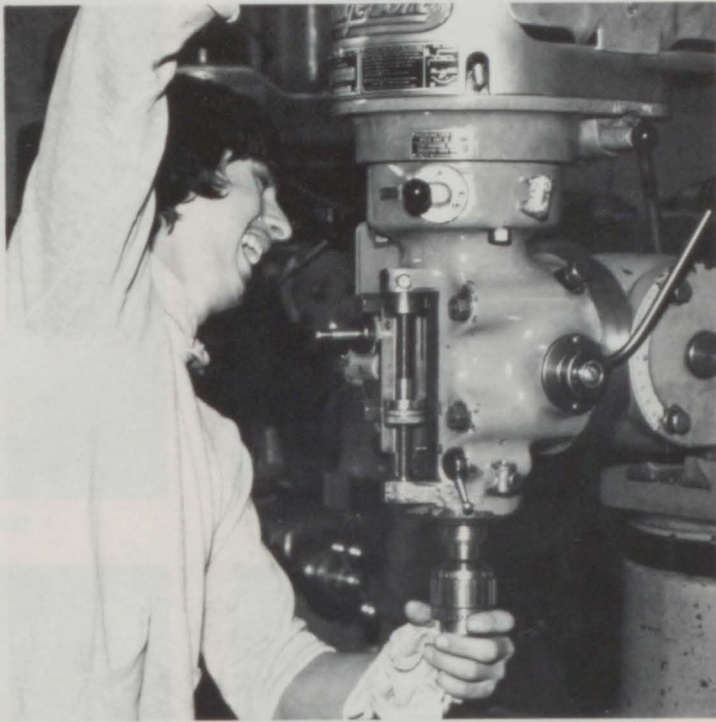

1. The dancers keep track of what's happening to those feet. 2. Our prom servers from the 1980 class. 3. Jack Scott and Janice Ogurchak work as servers. 4. Dan Foote slow dances after a fast moving night. 5. Dan Foote and Jackie Kloes—1978 Prom King and Queen. 6. Heidi Quiggle, Darla Bohl, and Dave Albus sit and just enjoy the band.
