Streaks Lock Up The Season With A 2nd Place N.E.C. Victory

TOP LEFT: Glenn Potter strives for the first down.

BOTTOM RIGHT: Working as a team, Potter, Malinowski, and Whitehair hustle for more yardage.

The Streaks Place A Second In The N.E.C.

1. The opposing team watches as John White streaks by.
2. The Streaks make sure the Edgewood ball carrier is definitely down!
3. Keith Palmer says, "Wait a minute, I think I lost him."
4. K.C. Blystone shows the Streak determination.
5. "Let's get fired up!"
6. Glenn Potter shakes his man off as John Nicely runs to help.
7. Mark Casto drags down the opponent.

The Madison Bluestreaks finished their football season with a 7 and 3 record that gave them a second place finish in the N.E.C.

Madison's offensive efforts were led by groundgainers Glen Potter (with 708 yards), K.C. Blystone, Bill Bates, and Kenny Schiemann. The total was 2,177 yards for Madison, and the opponents had 1,148 total yards.

Tim Malinowski led our passing game and had 29 out of 90 completions, with a total of 610 yards. Our leading receiver was Al White with receptions totaling 182 yards. The punter, Scott Dade, had a 35 yard average.

The Madison defensive efforts were led by Scott Dade and Glen Potter with 23 solo tackles each. They were closely followed by Jim Zirkle, Bill Bates, and Bill Whitehair.

The quarterback sackers were Bill Whitehair (for a total of 11), John Palmer, Steve Katona, and Jim Zirkle. There were five blocked punts by Jim Zirkle, Brian Blystone

John Palmer, and Doug Morgan.

"I'm not at all surprised that our football season was successful!" exclaimed Jim Orr, sports director.

The J.V. football team finished with an impressive record of 6 - 0 - 1 in the N.E.C. and 7 - 1 - 1 over all.

The tough Bluestreak defense had five shut outs. The offense also proved their ability by scoring 162 points. We will be looking for team to do the same next year!

The marching-symphonic band is a year round activity for band students. The Marching Streaks attended camp in Ripley, West Virginia. During winter, the marching band changes to symphonic band. These two bands are directed by Mr. Acerra and Mr. Soriano. Honored this year were six students chosen to play in the All Ohio State Fair Band, Mark Mitchell, John Malkamaki, Cara Cox, Letty Smith, Patti Williams and Connie Broberg.

1. The trumpet section keeps in step.
2. "Hey Barb, who are you looking at?"
3. Drum Major, John Zuzek, takes a rest.
4. Hut, two, three, four.
5. Wow! Look at those knees!

Homecoming Victory! Hoffman Queen!

HOMECOMING VICTORY!

The 1979-1980 football game was hosted by Madison who gave St. John the runaround. The main attraction was the crowning of homecoming queen Jaquie Hoffman. Her court included Kathy Walsh, Charlete Morrison, Angela Stubblefield and Sue Waldo.

The dance was at Madison High School from 7:30-10:30. The music was provided by Lefty and the theme was Never Never Land.

1. Tears roll as Homecoming Queen, Jacquie Hoffman receives her roses.
2. Homecoming Queen, Jacquie Hoffman stands with her parents in a moment of glory.
3. Homecoming Queen candidate, Charlette Morrison, proudly stands with her parents.
4. Sue Waldo of the Homecoming Court, awaits the big moment.
5. Kathy Walsh approaches the waiting Court.
6. Homecoming Court member Angela Stubblefield, anxiously walks to her homecoming position.

Cross Country Boys Run Over N.E.C. Foes

The boys cross country team ran away with the N.E.C. title this fall along with many other outstanding achievements. The senior runners were Dan Jacobson, Jeff Heidnik, Rob Rupinski, and Jeff Austen. Rob Rupinski and Jeff Austen went to state competition. Rob finished in the ninth spot and Jeff in the thirtyfourth. Rob Rupinski also finished in first place at the Malone College Invitational meet. Other members were Frank Tasccone, Brian Woerner, Rick Dame, Dave Smetters, and Dan Harrison. The team finished undefeated in all dual meets. They finished third in the Malone College Invitational, third in the Mentor Invitational and second in the Pery Nursery Invitational. Mr. Sears, after 11 years of leading the ever improving team, is retiring from the coaching position.

1. Coach Sears shows off his teams trophy.
2. Rob Rupinski leads the way towards a first place finish.
3. Brian Woerner streaks by his opponent.

5. The Priest performs the ceremony.
6. The rings used to seal the the wedding vows.
7. Now for the big moment!

The girls Bluestreak volleyball team, had another successful season. Coached by Miss Chris Anderson, they finished second in the N.E.C. with 11 wins, 3 losses, and with 13 wins, 6 losses over all. The varsity team was led by seniors, Sally Crawford, Delynn Markham, Pam North, Jenny Smith, Lisa Gibbon, Shelly Hyrne and Marie Moss, juniors, Kara Cox and Michelle Horvath. Sally Crawford and Pam North, both Starting setters, were honored by being placed on the first team N.E.C. The junior varsity squad had a rebuilding season, finishing with a 3-11 record in the conference. The team consisted of juniors, Kelly Coleman, Sharon Kepes, Lisa Potti, Heidi Robinson, Barb Uphole, and freshman Bev Bugbee, Nancy Collingwood, Kristi Cox, Debbie Kuklinski, Shelly Paquin and Kim Galloway.

Wrestlers Are Perfect In N.E.C.

The Streaks finished the season in first place. The team placed seven firsts in the N.E.C. tournament. they are as follows: Jeff Notte, Iain Gilchrist, Bill Bates, Bill Whitehair, Jack Scott, Brett Bennett, and John Palmer. The rest of the Varsity team are: Ted Bilski, Brian Widlits, Jim Tamborski, Ken Ciamaichella, Kevin Wirfel, and Doug Morgan.

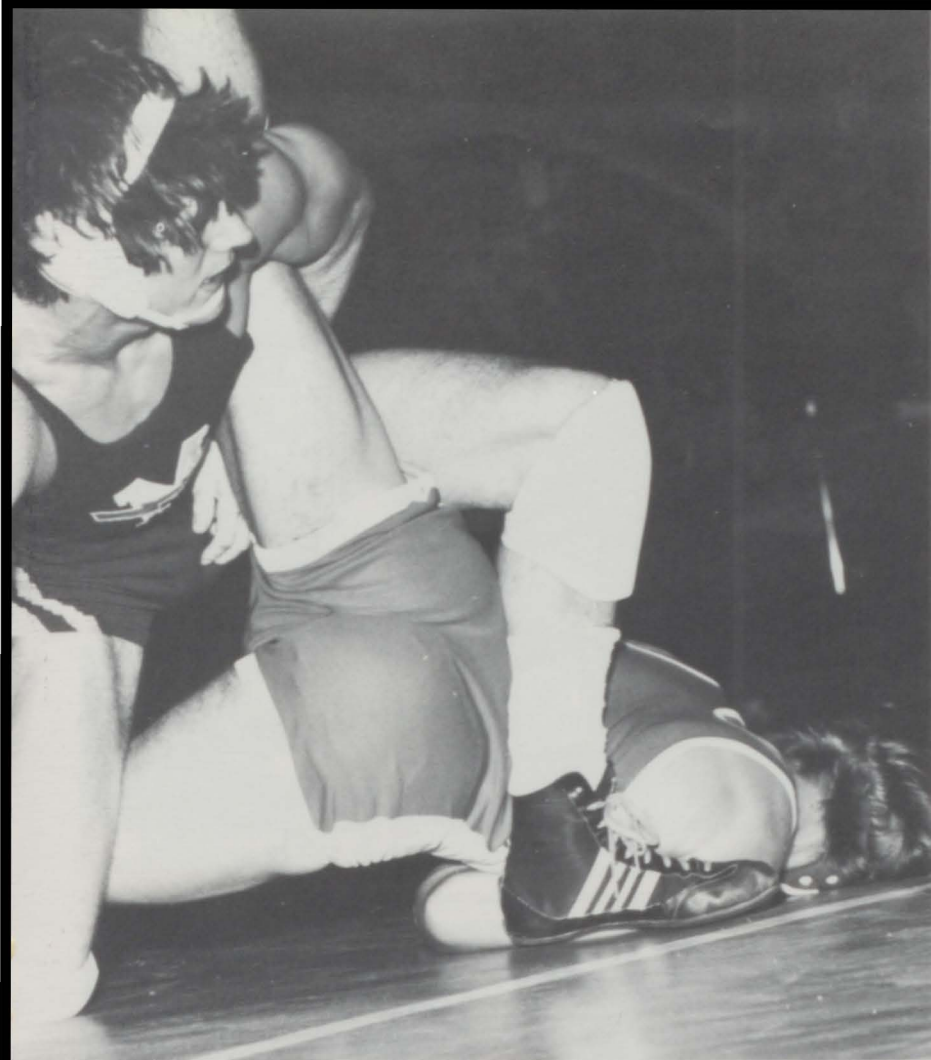

Coach, Mr. Melin, feels that he has a fine senior squad, and that he will miss them. But he has assured us that the upcoming boys will fill their shoes nicely.

Madison finished third in the district meet. Bill whitehair was our only first place man but we have eight going to the finals. Bill should be able to make it to the state meet and we hope a win there.

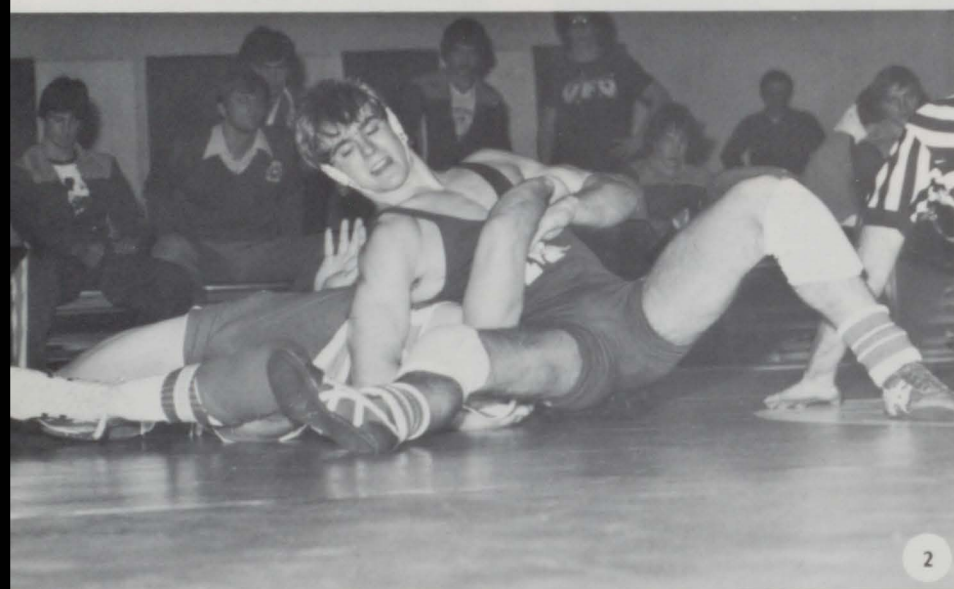

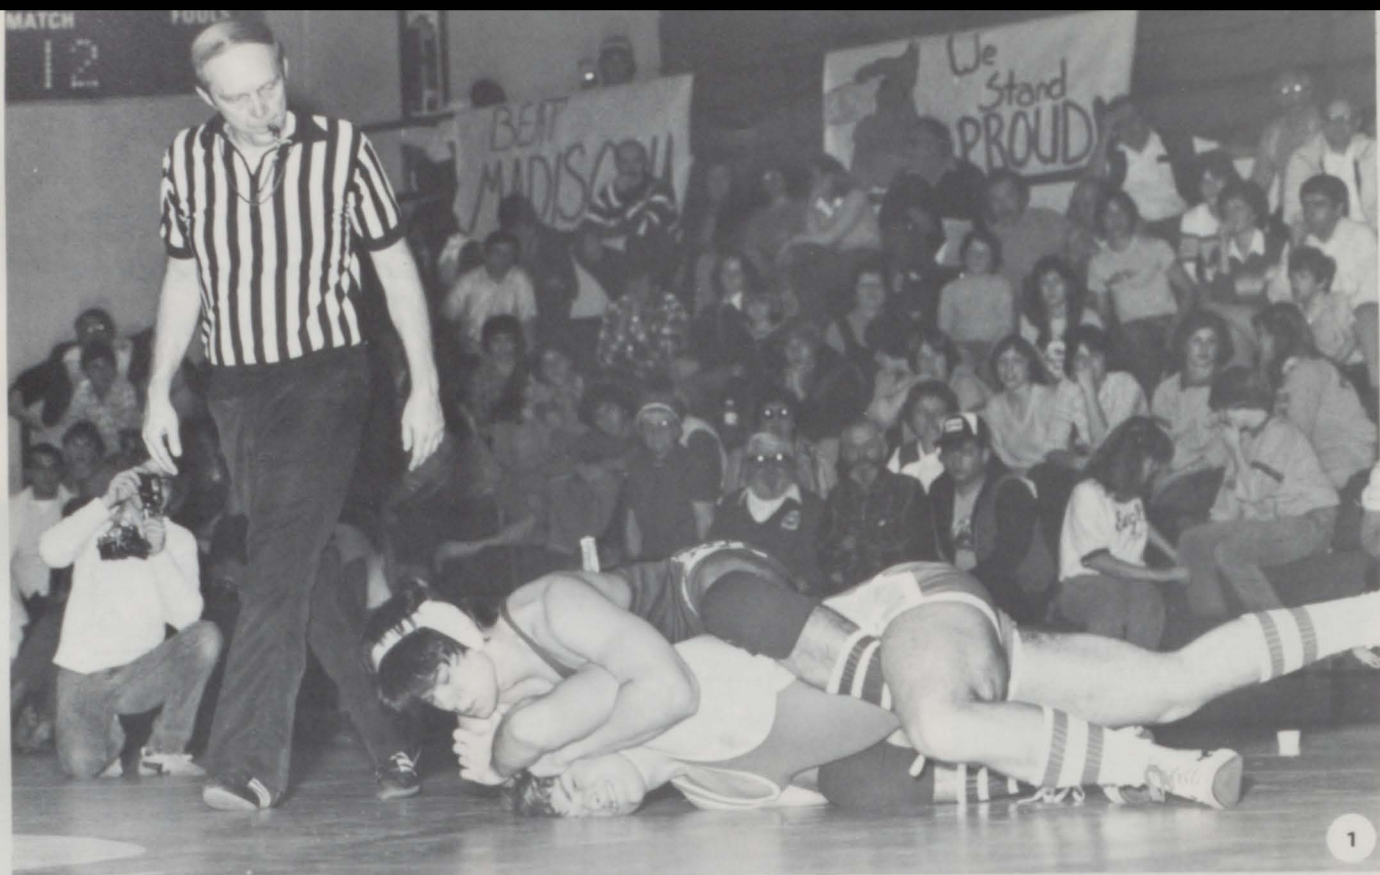

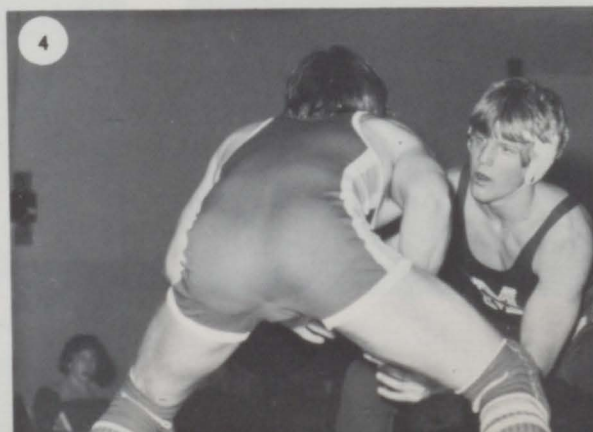

1. Capt. Bill Whitehair is in full control of this match.
2. Jack Scott flips his opponent for the pin.
3. Kevin Wirfel takes him down for two points.
4. Ken Ciamaichella swiftly escapes his man.
5. Heavyweight Doug Morgan refuses to let up his power.

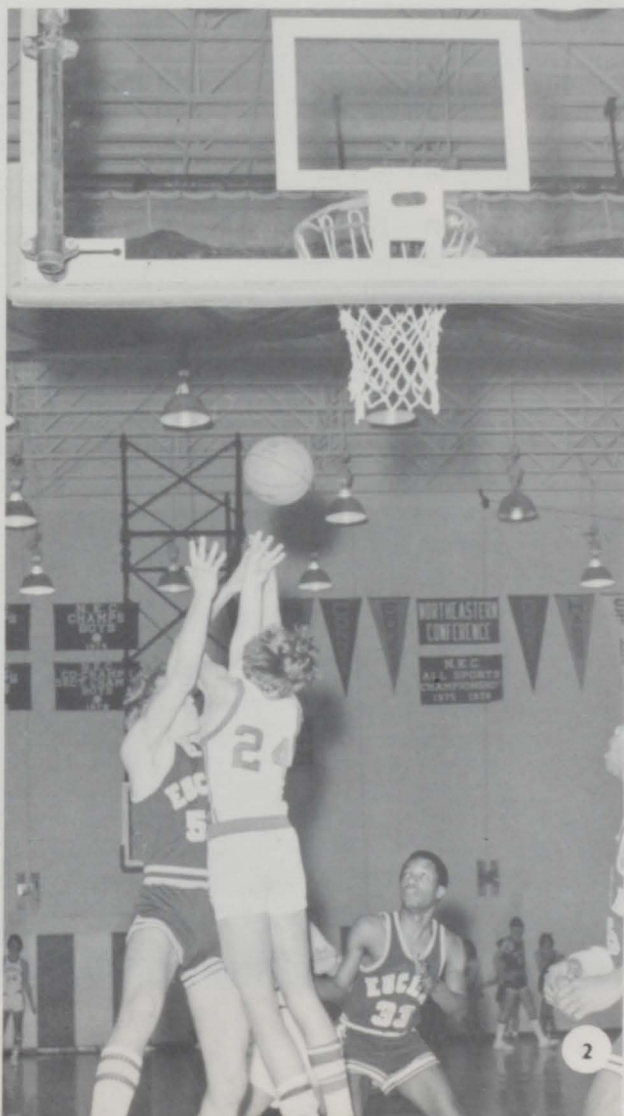

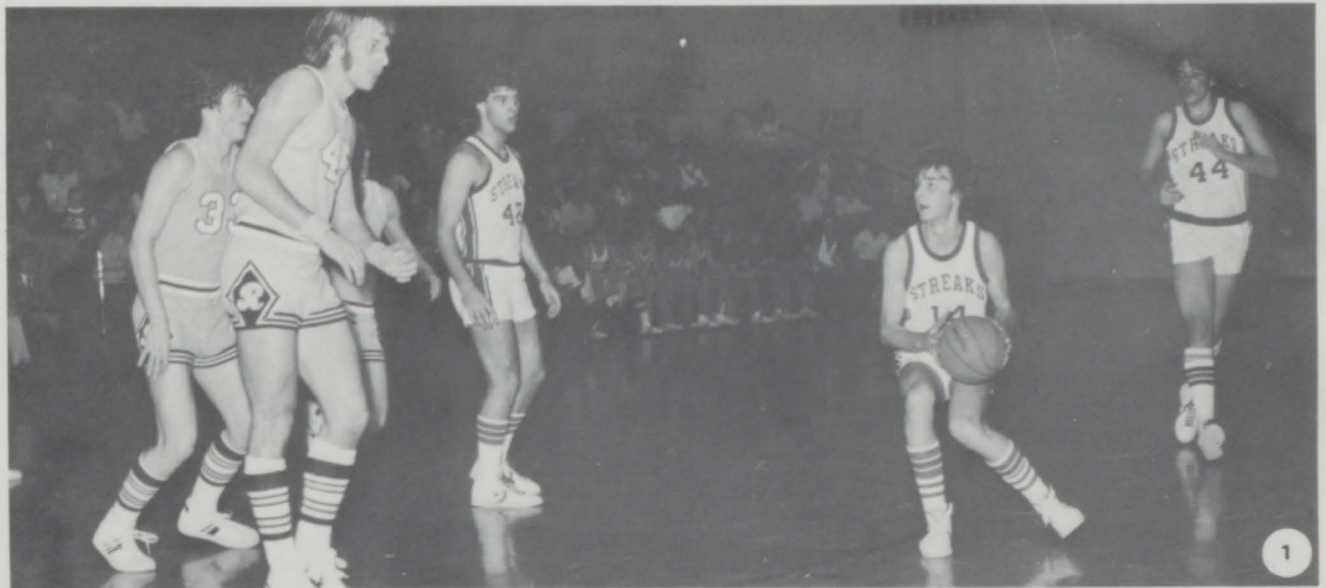

1. Bret Bennett sets up for a pin.
2. Bill Bates goes for another 6 points.
3. Streak raps up the helpless Eagle.
4. John Palmer sets up for the kill!

Roundball Season Has Its Ups And Downs

1. Mark Naughton looks for an open man.
2. Greg Koski attempts to out jump the Euclid man for the rebound.
3. "Hey guys, what goes up must come down!"

Streaks Get "Hot" In Mid Season.

The 1979 - 80 edition of the Bluestreak basketball team got off to a creeping start, opening their season with losses to district powers North, Lake Catholic, and Kenston. "The young Streaks faced the toughest schedule in the history of the school, remarked coach," Mr. Dolan. "The most exciting game of the year had to be the come from behind, 70 - 69 victory over the Euclid team". The Streaks then came alive in January, winning 6 out of 7 games.

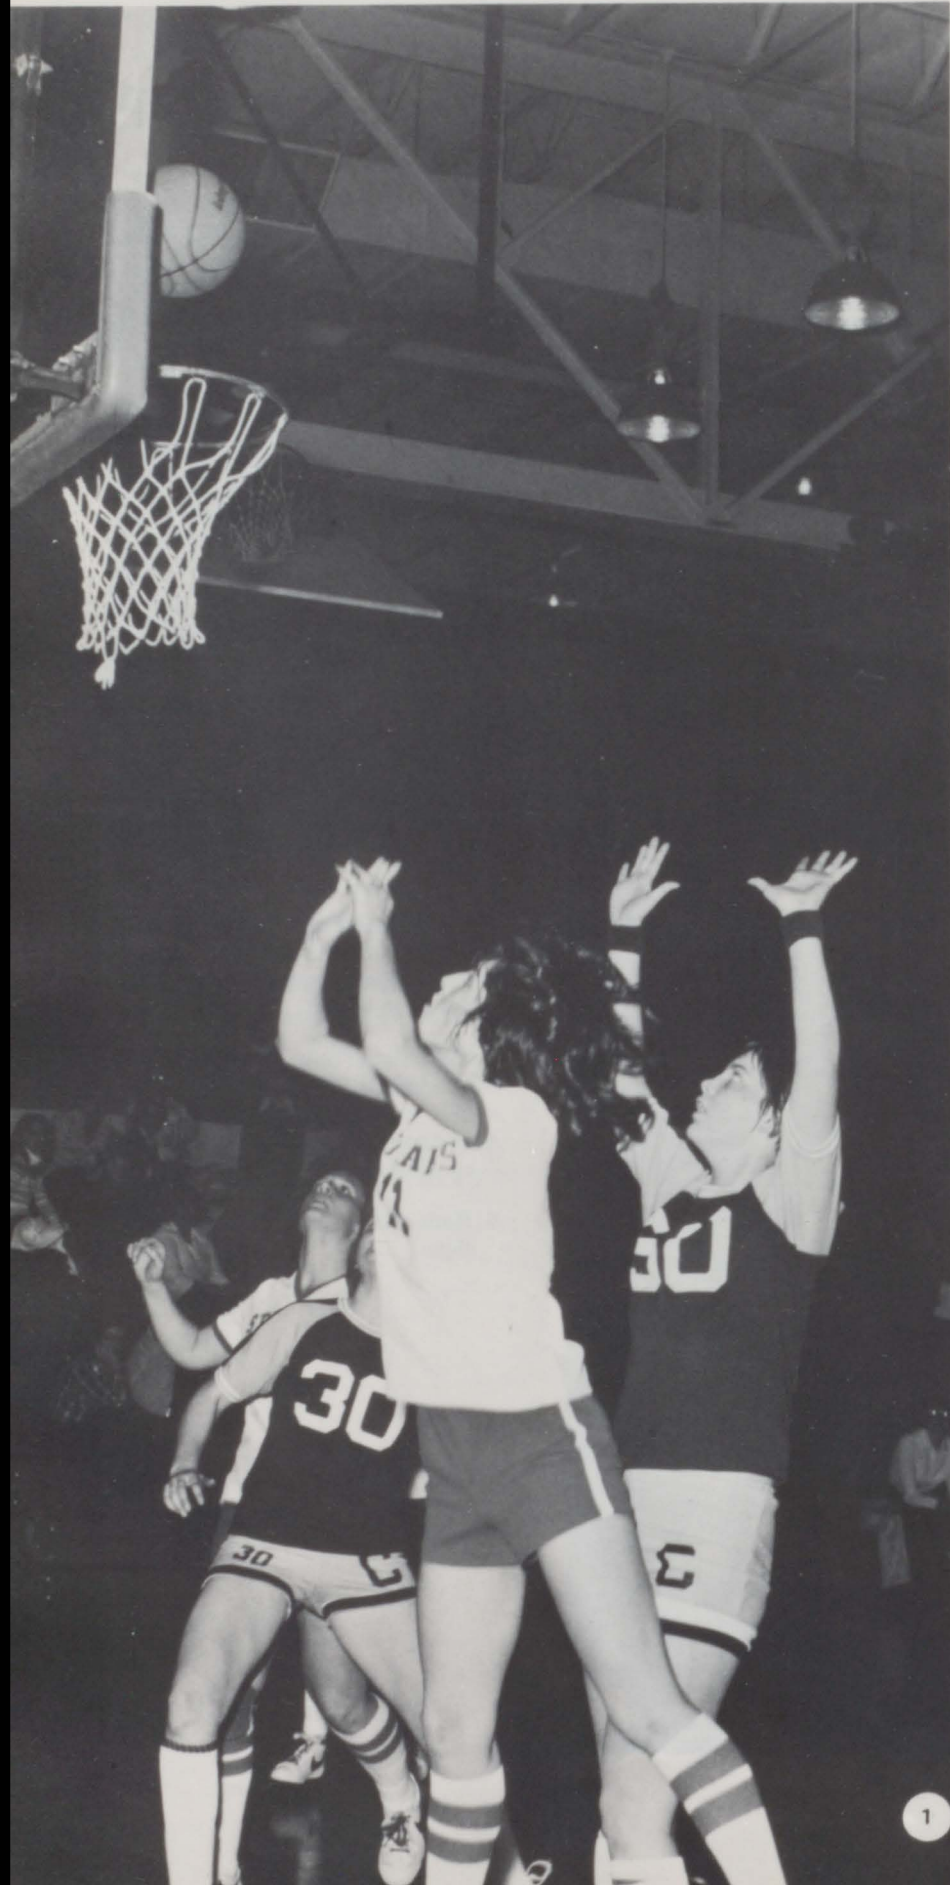

Leading scorers for this year were captains Mark Naughton and Greg Koski. The rest of the varsity team included Ed Reed, Glenn Potter, Todd Peine, Tim Pittsenbarger, Kevin DiPofi, Tim Malinowski and Tom Solden. The Active J.V. players Todd Kingery, T.J. Paguin, Tony Ruta, John White, Mitch Warholic, Mike Bollas, and Greg Morrison. The Freshmen ended with a 7 - 7 record.

1. Kevin DiPofi lays one in for two!
2. Tim Pittsenbarger tips the ball toward the basket.
3. Glenn Potter drives past the Euclid defender.
4. Ed Reed can't believe Tim can dribble backwards.
5. Mark shows off his shooting technique.

1. Jenny Smith steps in front of defenders.
2. Sue Palmer jumps up for two.
3. Colleen Haase finds it difficult to pass off.
4. Carolyn Wirfel takes advantage of the fast break.

Girls Have Good Season

This year the girls varsity basketball team, coached by Miss Phillips, ended their season with 10 wins and 10 losses. Standouts this year were seniors, Mickey Jones with 183 points and 46 steals, and Jenny Smith grabbing down 165 rebounds. Sophomore, Sue Palmer had the highest team foul shot average, shooting 53 percent. The rest of the team included, Seniors: Carolyn Wirfel, and Sandy Daughters. Juniors: Lisa Potti, Lisa Davis, Michelle Horvath and Kim Jones. Sophomores: Kamy Martin, and Tracy Rooks.

The J.V. team finished with a perfect N.E.C. record, 14-0, and 14-4 overall.

They were led by first year coach, Mrs. Newby. Tracy Watson had 198 points and Sue Evans had 178 rebounds.

Best Wishes to the

Bands Go

BANDS SPREAD THEIR MUSIC.

The stage band performs jazz and pop instrumental playing. The band performs all year at local school functions and guest appearances outside our school. This band participated in the Lakeland Jazz Festival where bands from all over Northeastern Ohio gather to perform.

Mr. Acerra is the director for the stage band, and symphonic band. Mr. Soriano is the assistant director for these bands.

The Symphonic Band is the same group of people as marching band. During the concert season, this band plays at the Christmas concert, at Commencement and plays a Spring concert. The band represents Madison High in the OMEA Contests for band and solo and ensemble players. this makes for a very busy school year.

1. Stage Band poses for their pretty picture.
2. Hard concentration goes into making beautiful music.
3. The band girls stand at attention.
4. The Pep Band shows their spirit!
5. Am I playing the right notes?

Choir Spreads Their Music

The choirs and ensembles had a busy year. In December, they joined the band for the Christmas Concert. They sang at the Randall Park Mall and gave several programs in the community. March 1st found the ensembles and choir going to contest. They also participated during Music in Our Schools Week, March 10-14. "The year has been busy but we enjoy working," commented the advisor, Mrs. Mullen.

Student Council Works To Raise Funds

To raise money for the 1979-80 school year the Student Council sold Frisbees with the Blue Streak emblem on them. They held a can drive and helped the Rock and Roll Jamboree, which was held at Shady Acres to help the Heart Fund. The council also sponsored a Pancake Breakfast to raise funds.

Students Receive Recognition By N.H.S.

On March 20, 1979, twenty-eight juniors were inducted into the National Honor Society. Mrs. Braunlich is the advisor of the Madison Chapter.

All juniors and seniors who have a minimum grade point average of 3.0 are eligible for membership.

The members then are chosen by their character, leadership and service. Once chosen by a vote of the faculty, each member is expected to maintain these standards.

1. Present National Honor Society members (back row left to right) Tom Solden, John Zuzek, Delynn Markham, Tim Malinowski, Rick Fenton, Mary Baron, Jenny Smith, Al White, (third row from left to right), Brian Welsh, Tim Sabo, Charlette Morrison, Amy Atwell, Bob Orr, Jeff Austen, Rob Rupinski. (Second row from left to right) Scott Spaulding, Mike Leone, Bill Bates, Judy Stewart, Brian Thomas, Dave Albus, Roxanne Ruland, (first row from left to right) Carolyn Wirfel, Loretta Masek, Mary Ann Paquin, Kim Walker, Denise Janezcek, and Maureen Brennan.

2. Lynn Wirfel presents Dennis Heichel with his award.

A.F.S. Plans To Sponsor Three Students

The A.F.S. Club has been busy raising money to send students abroad and to bring foreign students here to Madison.

They have been collecting money every Wednesday morning. They call it "Penny Wednesday." In the first semester they raised $1,000.00 which paid for the A.F.S. international membership.

Next year, they will sponsor three students at Madison. The A.F.S. club officers are president; Denise Janeczek, vice-president; Tom Solden, Treasurer; Norm Smyke, Secretary; Gina Billy and the advisor, Mrs. Stefancic.

German Camp, A Great Experience!

A proposal that a language camp experience be held for Madison German students, was put into affect a few years ago. Every May German students gather at Camp Klein, in Concord Township, for a series of interesting events. The idea was developed by the club advisor, Mr. Strothers. A three day camp is held and the culture and language studied. Those that cannot afford to travel abroad gain some experience of German life through this club. This is the third year for the program which has enjoyed great success.

Culture, Language, Geography-French

The French Club this year has furthered the knowledge of the French language, culture, and geography in exciting ways. It has offered an opportunity to learn the customs by experiencing them. The club is concerned with the community, visiting nursing homes and participating in civic affairs. The clubs advisor is Mrs. Strothers, President, Jeff Hagan, V.P., Larry Hennessey, Secretary, Jackie Masters, and Barb Butcher treasurer.

The Spanish Life Of Madison High School

The Spanish Club has been busy this year with their activities. They began by selling high school pennants. During the winter, they held a Christmas party with Santa Claus and they broke Pinatas. They also have gone roller skating. They hope to use their money to go to Cedar Point in June. The club is lead by Mrs. Stefancic and the officers are, President, Ken Lowthian, Vice-President, Aaron Chilbert, Secretary, Teresa Cox and Treasure, Arlie Keel.

We've Got Spirit, How About You?

WE'VE GOT SPIRIT, HOW ABOUT YOU? This years pep club gave the school a lot of support throughout the sports seasons. They performed skits at the pep assemblies and they made hall spirit posters. To raise money for their treasury, they sold "Blue Streak" buttons. The officers in charge are, Jane Rohling, (President), Julie Goist, (Secretary), and Kathy Weeks (Treasurer). The advisor is Miss Kathy Jackson.

Food For Fans — Service Club

The Service Club is a group of Senior, Junior, and Sophomore students (girls in general) who enjoy working at our concession stand during the winter sports events. Because of the fact that they have no elected officers, it makes for an informal group of students who enjoy being together and helping others.

Yearbook Staff Works To Make Deadlines

Members of the Yearbook Staff put in a lot of time and effort to get this book together. From the first plan to the completed book takes about seven months. Time is spent in the summer and after school getting adds to help cover the cost of publication. Your book cost about two dollars more than you pay for it; the balance is from advertising funds the staff brings in. We hope that you enjoy our efforts to record the year at Madison High for you.

1. Debbie Fahey and Rick Kirk busy at their work.
2. Jeff Davisson, editor, looks over the work to be done.
3. Mr. Heichel and Sue Swartwelder discussing page layouts.
4. Chuck Guy and Art Craft working with pictures.
5. Debbie Fahey, Rick Kirk, Penny Hunt, Betty Stivers, and Regina Turner, work on page layouts.

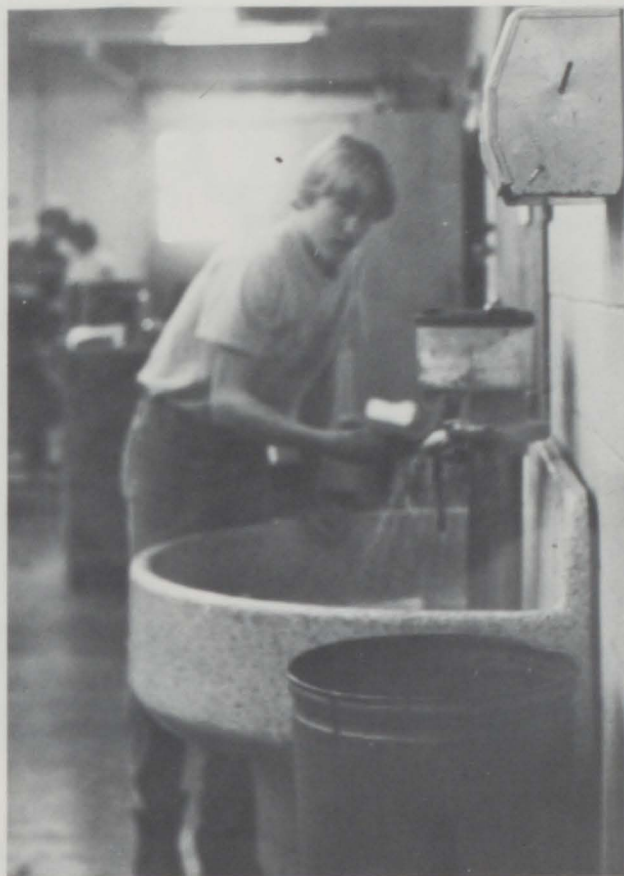

1. Art Craft showing Julie Keifer, Danetta Roberts and Robin Lane what to do.

2. Gary Adkins, Shelley Reinke, Pam North, Chris Mayer and Sue Swartzwelder keeping up with the books.

Equipment Ready To Go A-V Job

The Audio-Visual departments main job is to prepare equipment for classes. A.V. also tapes senior graduation and broadcasted if over a local T.V. channel. This year Mr. Linhart was the director of all the audio-visual officers in the area. Mr. Haines took over temporary command of the A.V. department. Any one with a C average can be in this department in place of their studyhall.

Drama Club Clowns Around Through The Year

This years drama club earned money by putting on the play Godspell, The Gong Show and selling mugs.

To promote Godspell, the cast clowns went out to schools and area businesses. Even though they were given strange looks, they enjoyed every minute of it.

The opening night performance of Godspell was rated by the rotary club. From this clubs rating, choice cast members will be honored.

Times Change, And So Do Seniors

1. This class is more interesting when it is distracted.
2. Senior boys express their personality in many ways.

Girls Work For People In Need

The G.I.R.L.S Club participated in many school and community events. During the football games, the girls sold candied apples and doughnuts. They had a can drive with the student council for the needy people of Madison during Thanksgiving. They gave their proceeds to the Cancer Society and other service projects. Their school projects were Slave Day, Hush Day, and a dance. The Club officers are President, Charlette Morrison, Vice-President, Mary Ann Paquin, Secretary, Judy Stewart, Treasurer, Sally Crawford and advisor, Mrs. Lee.

Key Club Year is Busy in Community

The Key Club this year was busy raising money for the Rock and Roll Jamboree. In March, a pancake breakfast was planned with student council. Mr. Hanes was the advisor, Mike D'Avirro president, John Zuzek vice-president, and Tim Sabo secretary-treasurer.

1. Key club members lounge around after the meeting.
2. Mike D'Avirro tries to keep things under control.

Boys Baseball Team Is On Top Again!

The boys baseball team finished first place in the N.E.C. for the second year in a row, finishing with an outstanding team batting average of .318. The varsity team was led by seniors, Ken Solden (batting .455), Jeff Cody, and all N.E.C. winners, Gregg Lyons and Jim DiPofi, and most valuable player in the N.E.C. Jeff Lakatos, whose pitching record was 7-1. Junior Bill Whitehair, was also all N.E.C. contributing two home runs. The Bluestreaks finished in first place at the Harvey Invitational. The proud coach, George Opron states, "We are at the top of our conference in respectability, We must replace five pitchers lost by graduation, but we will still be tough!"

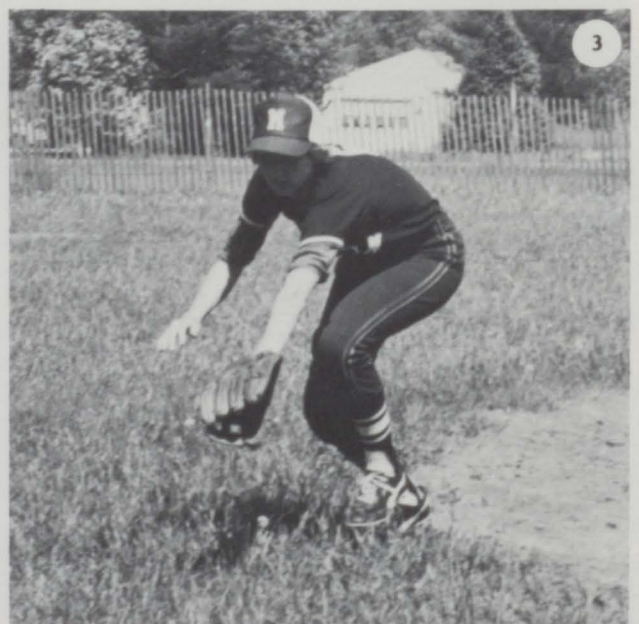

1. Could it be another Bluestreak base hit?

All Good Years End The Way They Start

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry, no matter how small, should be recorded to ensure the integrity of the financial data. This includes not only sales and purchases but also expenses, transfers, and adjustments. The text explains that consistent record-keeping is essential for identifying trends, managing cash flow, and preparing for tax obligations.

Next, the document addresses the process of reconciling bank statements. It provides a step-by-step guide on how to compare the company's internal records with the bank's records. This process helps to identify any discrepancies, such as missing transactions or errors in recording, and allows for prompt correction. Reconciliation is a critical step in ensuring that the company's books are balanced and accurate.

The third section focuses on budgeting and financial forecasting. It discusses how to create a realistic budget based on historical data and market conditions. The text highlights the importance of monitoring actual performance against the budget to identify areas where adjustments may be needed. Financial forecasting is also covered, showing how to use current data to predict future financial outcomes and make informed strategic decisions.

Finally, the document concludes with a summary of key financial management practices. It reiterates the importance of regular reviews, clear communication, and staying up-to-date with industry trends. The goal is to provide a comprehensive overview of the financial aspects of the business, enabling the reader to take control of their financial future.
